THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Fame usually come to those who are thinking about something else.

--Oliver Wendell Holmes

JOB OPENING

Wanted--a girl with switchboard experience for a permanent part-time job. See Miss Guy for the details.

ATTENTION FROM THE LIBRARY

ALL library books will be due Friday, March 14. Please check your books. You will be able to check books out for vacation March 20 & 21.

BAKE SALE

Tantalize tiny taste buds on the tip of your tongue by tasting tempting treats prepared by the Ladies Auxiliary. The sale is Monday, March 17 in the Snack Shack. All money is used to finance scholarships given to deserving students.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

We have something new! A USED BOOK FILE. This is a service of the bookstore especially for you and for your convenience. If you have used textbooks you wish to sell, file the information in the bookstore. On a 3x5 card print or type your name, room number and the title, author and edition of the book for sale. Also include the price at which you wish to sell the book. Students may consult this file if they wish to purchase used textbooks.

OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS

If you are planning to attend the student body sponsored Athletic Banquet this Friday at 6 p.m. please sign up in the office. Don't forget to bring the ticket you received in your mail box. It's valuable. There is no charge if you have your ASB card.

AMENDMENT PASSED

The amendment voted on Monday passed by a large majority. Class officers will now be elected in the Spring Quarter of the preceding year.

ATTENTION DORMITORY RESIDENTS

If you will be staying in the dormitories over the spring vacation make reservations with your supervisor RIGHT AWAY: A $1.00 charge per night will be assessed starting Sunday night, March 23, and ending Friday night, March 28. The last meal in the cafeteria this quarter will be Saturday noon, March 22. The first meal of Spring Quarter will be Sunday evening, March 30.
