

STUDENT BULLETIN

Tuesday, March 18, 1969

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

As a solid rock is not shaken by a strong gale, so wise persons remain unaffected by praise or censure. --Buddha

JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED

The General Council of the Assemblies of God is offering Journalism Scholarships for next year to students who are preparing to serve the fellowship as writers. Full information and application blanks may be obtained from the Dean of Education's office. Prompt action is necessary.

FROM THE LIBRARY

If you would like to check out books to have during the Spring Interim, you may do so March 20 and 21.

BOOKSTORE SPECIAL

We have something new! A USED BOOK FILE. If you have used textbooks you wish to sell, file the information in the bookstore. On a 3x5 card print or type your name, room number, and the title, author and edition of the book for sale. Also include the price at which you wish to sell the book. Students may consult this file if they wish to purchase used textbooks.

NEWS FOR DORMITORY RESIDENTS

If you will be staying in the dormitories over the Spring Interim, make reservations with your supervisor TODAY! A $1.00 charge per night will be assessed starting Sunday night, March 23, and ending Friday night, March 28. The last meal in the cafeteria this quarter will be Saturday, March 22 at noon. The first meal of Spring Quarter will be Sunday evening, March 30.

FOR ALL STUDENTS RETURNING

The first day of classes for the Spring Quarter is APRIL 1!

COLLEGE TO HOST CHOIR

Monday, March 31 at 7:30, the College will be favored by a special concert with the Cascade College Choir. Plan now to attend this special event.

DINING HALL SURVEY

The Administration wishes to thank the students for their cooperation in completing the recent Dining Hall Survey. A complete report of that survey will be presented at a later date.