

STUDENT BULLETIN

Thursday, January 8, 1969
Wednesday

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving one to another. --Robert Louis Stevenson.

APPLICANTS FOR GRADUATION

All applicants for graduation were asked to check with the Registrar for an audit on their Blue Book before the end of the autumn quarter. If this has not been done by Monday, January 12, it will be too late to add courses if they should be required this quarter.

Certification for graduation will be made only when the Blue Book audit has been made and the student completes course work for his or her program.

This announcement does not apply to those who have already brought their Blue Books in for audit by the Registrar.

MISSIONARY FAIR

The annual interaational Food Fair sponsored by the Missions MIG will be the first event of a challenging week of Missionary Emphasis on campus: January 17-23. Featured at the Food Fair will be special international music, a dramatic scripture challenge, and of course, food from many lands. It will be held in the cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Circle Saturday, January 17th on your calendar of special events!

LISTEN-IN

The A.M.S. of Beatty Hall wish to invite the A.W.S. of Perks Hall to an evening of enjoyment in the Chapel next Wednesday, January 14th. The Evangeltone Choir from Evangel Temple will be here to sing for us beginning at 7:30 p.m. This will be a great time of music and inspiration.

MARRIED MEN ONLY

Fellas, you are invited to next Wednesday's sponsored devotional by the A.M.S. as well. Bring your wives and enjoy the fine music.

MUSIC SERIES

The Juilliard Quartet will be given on Wednesday, February 4th, at the University of Washington. Student rates are available. For more information, contact the office of the Dean of Students.