

STUDENT BULLETIN

Tuesday, April 22, 1969

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

There are miraculous possibilities for the one who depends on God.

--Mrs. Chas. E. Cowman.

PROPHETIC SERIES

Plan to attend a three-chapel period prophetic series given April 23-25 by Harry Steil. This informative series will be of great benefit to all!

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

Milwaukie First Assembly of God Church in Oregon is in need of a music director and help with their young people. Rev. W. Elwood Irby, pastor, will be interviewing those interested today and tomorrow from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. For an appointment contact the President's secretary.

FINANCES

- National Defense Scholarship Loan funds are available to the qualifying students. We are designating May 15th as the DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION... so act now while there is time and money!
- Any student whose account will not be paid in full by June 6, must make special arrangements with the Business Manager and sign a note. If under 21 years of age, the note must be co-signed by parent or guardian.
- The time element will make it necessary to set May 15th as the deadline for making account arrangements.

NORTHWEST DISTRICT COUNCIL

The Northwest District Council of the Assemblies of God will be in session this week at Calvary Temple. For further information contact the District Office.

INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET THIS SATURDAY

Field events start at 9:15 a.m. sharp. Running events start at 10:45. For further information consult the bulletin boards in the SUB and in Beatty Hall.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

- Have you seen our beautiful catalog of wedding announcements? We give 20% off the regular price.
- Be sure to pick up your All-School Banquet tickets at the Bookstore. Tickets will be on sale only this week. Hurry!!!!
- What's New? ---- Groovy stationary--Bookplates--bean-bags! --Mothers Day cards.

YOUTH ACTION CRUSADE IN SPOKANE THIS WEEKEND

There is still room for more participants. If you wish to participate, fill out an application at the receptionists desk. There will be two orientation sessions, Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. in L-2. All participants plan to attend one of these sessions. If you have any questions see Mr. Turner.