

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Surrender your will to God. He will never take advantage of you.
--Rev. Evan H. Hopkins.

ALL-SCHOOL BANQUET

Tickets for the All-School Banquet are now available in the Bookstore. Tickets are free for those who have paid the initial student fee. For all others, including non-student guests, the ticket price is $3.50. You are encouraged to pick up your tickets early in order to save Mrs. Pecota from the last minute rush!!

SOPHOMORE SPONSORED SINGSPIRATION

Are you looking for something to do between supper and when you go out? You are invited to attend a sophomore sponsored singspiration in the chapel. The time is 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. this coming Saturday, April 26th. Everyone is invited!

INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET THIS SATURDAY

Field events start at 9:15 a.m. sharp. Running events start at 10:45 a.m. For further information consult the bulletin boards in the SUB and in Beatty Hall.

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Two men are needed to work in a nursery (florist). If you are interested contact Miss Guy.

FINANCE SEMINAR

A Finance Seminar will be held during the chapel hour - Friday, 25th, in C-2 for any who are needing information or application for the National Defense Student Loan. If you need such aid, be sure to be present.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT NEEDED?

There are great opportunities available through the Christian Book of Knowledge summer employment program. For more information see Miss Guy.

CREATION PRESENTATION

Rev. Talmadge Wilson, professor at SPC, has a powerful presentation entitled, "Science and Religion", discussing Scientific vs. Religious Interpretation. It will be given at Laurel Hurst Presbyterian Church, Friday, April 25th at 7:30 p.m. Areas of discussion will be:

- What we know of Creation.
- Could it all have happened in one week?
- How does the Ice Age fit in?
- What about dinosaurs?

SENIORS AND JUNIORS COLLEGE GRADUATES

During chapel on April 30th and May 1st, seniors and Junior College graduates will meet in C-2 for a finance seminar.

Chapel Schedule for next week will be: WOM elections on Monday, and Class elections on Tuesday. (Meet in designated rooms as throughout the year.)