THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"It is a thing of no great difficulty to raise objections against another man's oration,--nay, it is a very easy matter; but to produce a better in its place is a work extremely troublesome." --Plutarch

ATTENTION CO-WEDS

We will meet for fun with cake decorating and special music on Tuesday, January 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the NC Cafeteria. See you there!

QUEEN CANDIDATES ANNOUNCED

JUNIOR SOCIAL

Remember our skating party January 11 (this Saturday night) at Gold Creek. We'll meet at 6:30 p.m. at the Girls' Lounge. The Junior Class will pay 2/3 of the price for all Juniors who wish to skate.

LOST

...A key set, black leather snap case. It was lost the last part of the Fall Quarter. When you find it, see Paul Gottschalk, room 308, C. C. Beatty Hall.

TERM PAPER TYPIST

Need a friendly typist for your term papers? See Berdie in room 107 of Perks Hall. Bring them early and save money.

MRS. BLEWITT TO LECTURE

This evening Mrs. Blewitt will be lecturing to her piano students on the Time Element of Music. Any one interested in the lecture is welcome. It will be held in Perks Hall.

CLASS CHANGE

Mr. Tarno's class in Argumentation and Debate has been changed to the 6th period MWF. Students who are interested but could not take it the 4th period may now enroll in the class.

VESPER SERVICE

Wednesday, January 15, is the date for the next Vesper Service. It will begin at 8 p.m. in the Chapel. This meeting will take the place of the Dormitory meetings for that week.

BALL GAMES NEXT WEEK

The NC Eagles play two games next week. The first is January 14 (Tuesday) at 8 p.m. against Cascade College. The second game is January 17 (Friday) at 8 p.m. against Mt. Angel. Both games will be played here.

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEK

Let's start praying now for the soon coming Spiritual Emphasis Week. It begins January 20. Pray for God's anointing on the speaker and the listeners.
