

STUDENT BULLETIN

Thursday, January 16, 1969

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"All experience is an arch to build upon." --Henry Brooks Adams.

LOST

...A green bookbag containing a French book, Acts book, and paper. If found, please return to Terry Valnes, Rm. 303, Beatty Hall.

FOR VETERANS--AND OTHERS

If you're a veteran or are interested in an outreach to servicemen, you are invited to attend the meeting of the Servicemen's Interest Group this Friday during Chapel in C-2.

KING'S TEENS

Orientation for students working at the King's Teens Valentine Banquet is February 3, at 7:30 p.m. at King's Garden in Seattle. Those interested in working with King's Teens clubs and also those presently involved, meet in E-1 during Chapel on Friday, January 17.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

All foreign student must register their presence in the U.S. during the month of January. This may be done at any post office. Fill out the form and leave it with the postmaster for forwarding to the Immigration Service.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

Textbooks may not be returned after Friday, January 17.

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEK SCHEDULE

First--7:30; second--8:25; Chapel--9:15; third--10:45; fourth--11:40; fifth--12:35; sixth--1:30; seventh--2:25.

PRAYER EMPHASIS

The special prayer emphasis begins at 7 p.m. tonight and Friday night in the Prayer Chapel. Won't you join us in prayer for the coming Spiritual Emphasis Week?

INTERNATIONAL FOOD FAIR

COME TO THE FAIR!! Foods from around the world will be served. Linda Meissner of Teen Challenge will be singing; and Everett Rao, NC student from India, will be speaking. It begins at 7 p.m. in the Cafeteria, January 18.

INFIRMARY HOURS--FLU SHOTS

The infirmary hours Friday only will be 1-3 p.m. Those who received only their first flu shot and have not received the second shot are encouraged to do so Friday.