THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Philippians 4:6

Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

NEXT WEEK'S CHAPEL SERVICES

To acquaint our student body with the heritage and distinctive character of Northwest College next week's chapel services will be devoted to what we are calling "Heritage Week" on campus. Three special speakers will bring messages in chapel as follows:

Monday -- "The NC Heritage and World Missions" -- Rev. J. J. Clement, faculty member and missionary to Japan.

Tuesday - "The NC Heritage and the Campus" -- Rev. H. W. Crowder, Director of Development, Northwest College.

Wednesday-"The NC Heritage and its Spiritual Mission" -- Dr. C. E. Butterfield, President Emeritus, Northwest College

It is appropriate at this Thanksgiving season to take grateful notice of God's goodness and guidance over the years: "O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever." (Ps. 136:26), In the spirit of this beautiful refrain which graces a review of Israel's history, let us approach Heritage Week on campus next week.

SERVICEMENS M.I.G.

NORTHWEST COLLEGE HERITAGE

WEEK

November 24-26

Purpose: To acquaint the present student body at the College with the heritage of the past and the distinctive character of the school which comes out of that heritage.

To help them to understand something of the special "calling" which brought the school into existence and which has given it special purpose in the work of the Kingdom of God.

Sequence of topics and speakers:

Monday, November 24 --"The Northwest College Heritage and World Missions" --Reverend J. J. Clement, former member of the college faculty and missionary to Japan.

Tuesday, November 25--"The Northwest College Heritage and the Campus." -- Reverend H. W. Crowder, Director of Development, Northwest College.

Wednesday, November 26 --"The Northwest College Heritage and its Spiritual background and mission." -- Dr. C. E. Butterfield, President Emeritus.

Nature of the week:

Chapel series. Emphasis to be on the message. Preliminaries will be shortened to give each speaker maximum speaking time.

Chapel services start at: 9:30 a.m..
