THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

If I am afraid to speak the truth, lest I lose affection, or lest the one concerned should say, "You do not understand," or because I fear to lose my reputation for kindness; if I put my own good name before the other's highest good, then I know nothing of Calvary love. --Amy Carmichael.

PROSPECTIVE GRADUATES

If you are planning to graduate from junior college or otherwise and have not applied for graduation, turn your name into Mr. Gustafson immediately. If you don't, your pictures will not be in the graduation section of the annual.

NEW CLASS!!

Our new class in "Form and Analysis" so far has insufficient enrollment to continue. This is disappointing since we are trying to strengthen our music program with a view to someday having a music major. Perhaps some would yet like to enroll. It is open to anyone having had a year of Music Theory including sophomores! If the class time presents a problem, it very likely could be changed to a different time. If interested, contact Miss Amundsen.

AFTERGLOW

An afterglow sponsored by the Senior Class will be given as a time of entertainment and refreshments on Friday, December 12th at 9:30 p.m. Our N.C. Eagles will be playing Western Baptist College, a new school in our league, so please come and welcome our guests!

CHRISTMAS CONCERT TONIGHT!

Get in the Christmas spirit and come to the College Choir concert tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the Chapel to hear the Christmas story told in a new way. Everyone is invited to hear soloists Keri Kiesser, Carrie Daniel, Susan Brown, Stan Dyck and Fred Anderson.

Following the concert everyone is invited to attend open house in Perks Residence Hall.

RIDES NEEDED

* Anyone driving to California (preferably as far as San Francisco) who would like a rider to share driving and expenses, please contact Janet Hartsfield. Telephone her at VA 2-9940 or slip a note in Box P-315.

* Peg Smith would appreciate a ride to Spokane on December 23. She can be contacted through Box P-214.
