

CHRISTIAN SERVICE BULLETIN

No. 2 March 16, 1970

The College has received several requests for students to fill ministry positions. If you are interested in any of the following openings, please contact the Office of the Dean of Students.

IMMEDIATE OPENINGS

Intern Pastor: Southgate Assembly of God is interested in an intern pastor to assist in the work of their church. Rev. Clyde Walden has indicated that the church is prepared to offer the use of their present parsonage and pay all utilities for a student interested in this position.

Music Director: The University Place Assembly of God in Tacoma is in need of a choir director. Responsibilities would involve work with the music department on Wednesday nights and Sunday mornings. Remuneration is available.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES AND POSITIONS FOR GRADUATES

C.E. Director: First A/G in Anchorage, Alaska has an opening for a C. E. Director and for a business secretary. A husband/wife combination would be acceptable. Pastor of the church is Rev. Grant Wacker. Remuneration is available.

Youth Minister: First A/G in McMinnville, Oregon, under the direction of Pastor William Rose is seeking a youth minister on a part-time basis. A graduate couple anticipating full-time ministry is preferred. Music ability would also be helpful. Remuneration is available. The couple would assume duties there by July 1.

Youth Director: A challenging position for a graduate is available with the Cheney Community Church, Cheney, Wn. This opening might be advantageous for a Jr. College graduate or a four-year graduate wishing to continue his education at Eastern Washington State College in Cheney.

Intern Pastor: Kenneth Lindgren, pastor of the Payette, Idaho A/G is interested in an intern couple for the summer months.

Pastorate Opening: A opportunity is available for a graduate and his wife for the pastorate in Zillah, Washington.

V. B. S. Montana District has inquired about a team of N.C. students to conduct V.B.S. sessions throughout the District. The District will assist in planning the itinerary.

The Alstons Corner A/G in Ranier, Ore. desires a V.B.S. in June. The Peshastin A/G is interested in a V.B.S. or Kid's Crusade.

The Rosalia A/G would like to contact an N.C. student or team for a Kid's Crusade to be held in June.

Minister of Youth

Christian Day School Personnel

Calvary A/G in Salinas, Calif. has the following openings:

1. A minister of youth.
2. Principal of a new and growing day school
3. First grade teacher (teaching credentials not essential)

Christian High School

An interdenominational Christian high school in Stanzel, Iowa near Des Moines, is interested in N. C. graduates becoming a part of their teaching staff. This school is in its second year of operation; teaching and other staff positions are available.