

CHRISTIAN SERVICE BULLETIN

No. 3 March 31, 1970

Welcome back to Campus! Spring Quarter has begun! The College has received many requests for students to fill ministry positions -- both for summer ministries and full-time ministries for graduates. If you are interested in any of the following openings please contact the Office of the Dean of Students. It is important that contacts be made soon on many of these openings. Several pastors will be here for Campus Day. If you wish to contact them, please sign up in the Administration Office.

IMMEDIATE OPENINGS

- Intern Pastor: Southgate Assembly of God is interested in an intern pastor to assist in the work there. Rev. Clyde Walden has indicated that the church is prepared to offer the use of their present parsonage and pay all utilities for a student interested in this work.
- Music Director: The University Place Assembly of God in Tacoma is in need of a choir director. Responsibilities would include involvements on Wednesday nights and Sunday mornings. Remuneration is available.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES AND POSITIONS FOR GRADUATES

- Kindergarten Teacher: The Assembly in Tigard, Oregon, has an opening for a women graduate from the Jr. College or with a B.A. degree to fill the teaching position in their kindergarten, beginning Sept., 1970. Pastor Les Binkley will be on campus APRIL 3 to interview interested students. (This position is a paid position with vacations.)
- Youth Pastor: The Tigard A/G is also interested in a student ministering as Youth Pastor for the summer only. The Pastor will be on Campus April 4 to interview interested students.
- Summer Day Camp Program: The Salvation Army has a position open for Day Camp Director for their summer Day Camp program to meet the needs of middle and low income children in the South Snohomish Co. Remuneration is available.
- Youth Minister: The Kearns Assembly of God in Kearns, Utah, has an opening for a graduate couple to assist in the youth and music ministry of the church as well as the other evangelism outreaches.
- C. E. Director: First A/G in Anchorage has an opening for a C. E. Director and for a business secretary. A husband/wife combination would be acceptable. Pastor of the church is Rev. Grant Wacker. Remuneration is available.
- Youth Minister: First A/G in McMinnville, Ore., under the direction of Pastor William Rose is seeking a youth minister on a part-time basis. A graduate couple is preferred. Music ability would also be helpful. Remuneration is available. The couple would assume duties there by July 1.
- Youth Director: This position is available at Cheney Community Church, Cheney, Washington. This position might be advantageous for a Jr. College graduate or a four-year graduate wishing to continue his education at Eastern Wash. State College in Cheney.
- Intern Pastor: Kenneth Lindgren, pastor of the Payette, Idaho A/G is interested in an intern couple for the summer months.

Pastorate Opening: An opening is available for a graduate couple for the pastorate in Zillah, Washington.

- V. B. S.
