

STUDENT BULLETIN

Friday, January 23, 1970

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The wisest man may always learn something from the humblest peasant.
--J. Petitsen.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH MILK?

The milk company has informed us that some of the milk that we received has been frozen and the additive separates giving it a peculiar taste! When this occurs, notify Mr. Greenhaw or the cook on duty.

VALENTINE BANQUET

King's Teens Annual Valentine Banquet is coming February 20. Over 3,000 are expected to again fill Exhibition Hall at the Seattle Center for this, the largest youth banquet in America. Again, Northwest Students are given the opportunity to counsel and serve tables. Sign up at your nearest bulletin board. For further details check the bulletin boards and future bulletins.

SUPERINTENDENT'S WEEK

Don't forget to sign up at the receptionist desk in the Administration Building for interviews with the superintendent of your choice. All interviews will be from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

BASKETBALL GAME!

Support your basketball team this Saturday evening at 8:00 p.m. They will be playing here against Warner-Pacific College.

ANIMAL FARM

Why should the pigs take the farm from human being?? Does the change in farm administration improve the lot of the barnyard animals?? What are the implications of the allegory Animal Farm?? Read... and be informed...Your copy of Animal Farm is available in the bookstore for $.75. Join the All-College discussion group in the Learning Center auditorium on Tuesday night, February 17, at 7:30 p.m.

GYM OPEN!!

**The gym will be open every Tuesday and Thursday from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. for Intramurals.

***Monday evening from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. will be designated as a free night for anyone who would like to use the facilities.