THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The future is that time when you'll wish you'd done what you aren't doing now.

Arthur Zito

WE NEED YOU:

Come and go witnessing with us this weekend. Meet at 6:00 p.m. in the SUB prayer chapel on Friday night for Sea-Tac and Seattle Center.

CONGRATULATIONS:

Congratulations to our new cheerleaders: Bonnie Batchlor, Mary Shellberg, Joy North, and Pam Basom.

Also, to Weldyn Houger, Student at large elected to the Student Council.

MISSIONS MIG:

The Far East Geographical Group of the Missions MIG will have a time of fasting and prayer Sunday evening at 4:30 in the SUB prayer chapel. Please attend.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

The Servicemen's center will be open this Saturday. Rides will be provided. Meet in Perks Hall at 1:45 p.m. and we will return at 5:40. (Food will be provided for afternoon workers) In the evening the bus will leave Perks Hall at 5:30 and return at 10:30. Souls are dieing . . . Do you care?

There will be a Servicemen's MIG meeting Friday, October 30 during Chapel in C-3. We will be discussing week-end activities. Thank you.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE:

The Commentary Sale for this quarter is coming up. (Nov. 2-6) $5 down on set and $2 on single volumes will order any commentary you wish at 20% off. Be sure to check our new arrivals.

GOSPEL TEAM LEADERS MEETING:

There will be a meeting of all approved Gospel Team Leaders Friday, October 30 during chapel in L-101. A corresponding meeting in L-103 will be held for all ladies vocal groups that are presently working with a gospel team leader.

HELP:

Rev. David Peck would like to know if any young men would be willing to help out Sunday mornings in the services at Zion Mission in Seattle. Brother Peck would provide a ride from the College. Interested persons should telephone Brother Peck at VA 2-6274.

MEDICAL AUTHORIZATION/REPORTS:

A number of students have yet to submit Medical Authorizations/Reports. These are important. Memoranda have been sent out from the Admissions Office concerning them, and the immediate cooperation of the students will be to the mutual interest of both the students and the college. At this time, it is more important that the authorizations, signed by parents be turned in first and then the Medical reports completed by students' physicians.

INTRAMURAL FLAG FOOTBALL:

Winners last Saturday - Saints, Bucks, and Marrieds. Congratulations!! This Saturday's schedule is F-Troop vs. Bucks - 9:00 Saints vs. Red Dogs - 10:00 Bombers vs. Marrieds - 11:00.
