

STUDENT BULLETIN

March 9, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

I've never been poor, only broke. Being poor is a frame of mind. Being broke is only a temporary situation.

--Mike Todd

ATTENTION WOMEN:

"Burning Testimonies" is the theme for this week's AWS meeting, at 9:45, March 10, in the lounge. Don't miss this very inspiring time!

MAIL SERVICE:

There will be mail pickup and distribution only on the days the Business Office is open and personnel on duty.

AMATEUR SHOW:

The date for the Amateur Show has been changed from April 23 to April 22, 1971.

RESTHOME VISITATION:

A car will be leaving as usual at 5:55 p.m. from Perks Hall for person to person resthome visitation. We can use some new people. The only preparation necessary is a willingness to be a blessing.

INTERN MIG MEETING:

The Intern MIG will be meeting Wednesday, March 10 during Chapel in C-3. We will be discussing the Intern Chapel, change of name and purpose of the MIG and there will also be a few helpful hints regarding resthome visitation.

CLASSES AVAILABLE:

Old Testament Theology is open to upper classmen who may wish to take the course. It will go towards the Theology requirements which are not otherwise specified by number. We are considering changing the scheduling of the course to a later hour in the day. Those interested in the course are asked to come to the Registrar's Office and register their desire for the course together with a list of free periods in their schedule for the spring quarter. In distinction from the other theology courses, this course is a Biblical Theology which surveys and analyzes the theological strains of the books of the Old Testament.
