

STUDENT BULLETIN

April 13, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

--Romans 13:1

ALL SCHOOL BANQUET:

Tickets for the Banquet are now available in the Bookstore. Please bring your ASB card. The cost for off-campus persons without ASB cards is $3.75.

AMATEUR SHOW:

Don't forget - the Amateur Show is only a few days away. The magic date is April 22nd. Tickets will cost 5¢ - Buy them from your local RA.

BIOLOGY LAB MANUALS:

Anyone with a Biology Lab Manual from last fall? We would like to borrow them for a few weeks to help Physiology students do the Pork Chop. Slip them under the door of the lab or office.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

Housework job for a girl on Fridays, 1:30 to 5:30 and a Lawn job for a man. See Miss Guy.

JUNIORS:

Let's be thinking about next year's class project and give your ideas to one of the officers. We have checked out a few ideas and are hoping to hear from everyone this quarter. Also, be praying about the up coming class elections.

COMMUNITY SERVICE MIG:

For the information of all interested persons, we will be leaving again Tuesday at 5:55 p.m. to visit the rest homes. Bring a couple of coins 'cause we are really going to stop for coffee on the way back this time!

FROM THE BOOKSTORE:

The last Commentary Sale for this year is now in process. 20% off on any single volume or set of commentaries. Please ask for details.

THANKS A LOT:

The Evangelism MIG wishes to thank each person who gave of their time and effort to make Operation Easter a success. (Note - Paul Wylde will be coordinating Seattle Center Witness, which will begin April 24. Watch for more information).

PICTURES:

Want a few good laughs? Stop by the ASB office starting Tuesday, April 13 at 9:00 a.m. Old yearbook pictures will be on sale (10½ to 25¢)

CALLING PROSPECTIVE MISSIONARY STUDENTS:

If you are considering foreign missionary service, you are invited to a Breakfast Seminar sponsored by the Foreign Missions Department of the Assemblies of God. It will be on Monday, April 26 in the College Cafeteria (Faculty Dining Room). It will be conducted by Rev. Delmar Guynes, Secretary for Missionary Personnel. The breakfast is being hosted by the Missions Department and will be provided at no cost to the students. If interested, please sign up with Mrs. Baunsgard in the Administration Building.

MISSING RADIO:

A radio is missing from a Green 57 Chev which was parked on the Chapel parking lot. Anyone who has any information concerning this, please contact the Administration Office.

SENIORS:

Seniors who are in the Amateur Hour Skit please meet in the Learning Center at 2:30 Wednesday Afternoon.

SELLING OPPORTUNITY:

The Sales Manager from Dixon Publishing Company will be on campus to interview students interested in part or full-time work for summer or all year around selling Dixon's New Analytical Bible and 8 volume library. If you are interested, meet in the Faculty Conference Room on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week between the hours of 10 and 3. Materials regarding this are on the SUB Bulletin Board.

F L A S H N E W S !!

Friday and Saturday, April 16 and 17 is Lay Council at Northwest College.

Ken Schmidt, pastor at Santa Cruz, California, returns as speaker. He will speak in Chapel Friday morning and again in a joint rally at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel. All students are invited -- urged -- to attend the rally Friday night. Many will remember Ken Schmidt as our Fall Spiritual Emphasis Speaker in 1969. If you have not heard him, once you do, you will want to hear him again and you will never forget it. Don't miss Friday night! The Choralons will be singing at that rally.

The Lay Council will be on campus all day Saturday, climaxed with their annual Master Plan Partners Banquet. Remember these meetings in prayer.
