THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty.

--Psalms 104:1

IS YOUR RELIGION REAL?

Prove it! Come and go witnessing with us this weekend. Friday night, Sea-Tac at 6:00 p.m. - 1st Avenue at 6:45 p.m. On Saturday, Seattle Center Witness (just starting again) at 5:30. Meet in the SUB Prayer Chapel.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

There will be a MIG meeting April 23 during Chapel in C-3.

CALLING PROSPECTIVE MISSIONARY STUDENTS:

If you are considering foreign missionary service, you are invited to a Breakfast Seminar sponsored by the Foreign Missions Department of the Assemblies of God. It will be on Monday, April 26 in the College Cafeteria (Faculty Dining Room). It will be conducted by Rev. Delmar Guynes, Secretary for Missionary Personnel. The breakfast is being hosted by the Missions Department and will be provided at no cost to the students. If interested, please sign up with Mrs. Baunsgard in the Administration Building.

ATTENTION GIRLS:

The next AWS meeting, April 28 at 9:45, will be the election of officers for next year. Everyone come and bring a pencil. Between now and Wednesday, continue to be in prayer concerning the elections.

PROSPECTIVE GOSPEL TEAM LEADERS:

All students interested in ministering next year as gospel team leaders please contact Roy Owings in room G-511 or place a note in the Gospel Team box in the Administration Office. There are many opportunities for practical Christian ministry in Gospel teams. We want to get a head start on next year, so prayerfully consider what God would have you to do.

ASB GIVING:

The offerings for the Bus Fund for the last two weeks were $208.76 and $131.78. Your continued giving is appreciated.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS:

Henry Siegl, Seattle Symphony Orchestra concert master will present "An evening with your Seattle Symphony Concert Master" at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 27 in the Learning Center. The evening will be one you won't forget. Don't miss it!!
