April 27, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

. . . The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

--James 5:16b

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES:

The Assembly Community Church in Mountlake Terrace has need of Children's Church workers. Transportation will be provided.

The Friend's Church, a pioneer work east of Kent, needs two students to teach Sunday School and perhaps work into a children's program. It would be helpful if one could play the piano. (1/2 hour drive from the school.)

Murray McLees from Eugene, Oregon will be needing a music man very shortly. Contact the Dean of Students office for further information.

LIBRARY BOOK SALE:

The Library is having a used book sale - 25¢ each. The sale begins today, April 27 and will run through Friday, April 30.

SOPHOMORE CLASS ELECTIONS:

Sorry about the mistake regarding Sophomore class vice-president for the 1971-72 school year. Congratulations to Rich Israel!

GREAT PARTICIPATION:

The first round of men's intramural volleyball was completed last Wednesday night and the results were:

- 5th Gray - 2 games to ) over 4th Gray
- 6th Gray - 2 games to 1 over 1st floor Beatty
- 2nd Beatty - Won by forfeit over off-campus

The schedule for this Wednesday night - 4-28-71 is:

CULTURAL SERIES:

Henry Siegl, Seattle Symphony Orchestra concert Master will be with us tonight in the Learning Center at 8:00 p.m. The evening will be one you won't forget. Don't miss it!!

HEY STUDENTS!!

Henry Siegl, Seattle Symphony Orchestra concertmaster, will present "An Evening with your Seattle Symphony Concertmaster" at 8 p.m., Tuesday, April 27 at Northwest in the Learning Center .

Siegl, who became concertmaster of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra in 1956, was previously a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, concertmaster and soloist with the Orchestra Sinfonica Brasileira in Rio de Janeiro, concertmaster of the New York City Ballet Orchestra, and a violinist in the NBC Symphony under Toscanini.

Perhaps, this will be the finest talent ever displayed at NC. Siegl presents a very informal evening but takes his playing seriously. See you there!!
