THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

If anyone can control his tongue, it proves that he has perfect control over himself in every other way.

--James 3:2 (Living Letters)

FRESHMEN:

Today is the last day to sign up for the Freshmen Social. Don't Forget.

ATTENTION RADIO CLUB:

All Radio Club members and announcers are requested to meet in front of the fountain Wednesday morning at 9:20. This is for our club picture. If it rains, come Thursday at the same time.

ATTENTION GIRLS:

This week in AWS will be Dean Rozell and Mr. Pecota speaking on the Holy Spirit. This will be a very interesting and informative time. That's 9:45 in the lounge.

FOLLOW THROUGH:

We are again urging that students NOT seek early exams for the Spring quarter unless, of course, some unforeseen emergency arises which requires a special consideration. The College made some changes in the calendar for the current academic year so that all students could get an "early out" for a "jump" on summer employment, and other plans. The terminus date for this year is the earliest ending date since 1958-59. Plans for travel, employment, or other personal interests should be adjusted in keeping with the normal College calendar.

Graduates will conclude the quarter on May 30, graduation day, provided that they meet the requirements for graduation and actually graduate on that date. They will otherwise be subject to finals in the same manner as non-graduating students.

GOSPEL TEAMS:

Several people have expressed interest in gospel teams next year. These have been, mainly, those interested in being leaders, although some have expressed a desire to be involved musically. If you feel that your ministry may be in this capacity, please contact Roy Owings in G-511 or place a note in the Gospel Team box in the Administration Office.
