

STUDENT BULLETIN

May 6, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Make us a wind to shake the world out of this sleepy sickness . . .

--Cecil Day Lewis

FRESHMEN CRUISE:

A limited number of tickets are still available. Those left are open to upperclassmen for $2.00 until the 100 minimum is met. After that, tickets can be purchased at full price, $4.00 until Friday, May 7.

AN ITEM OF INTEREST:

On Sunday, May 9, 7:00 p.m. at Calvary Temple, Gerald Gillock will speak. He is representing the Advanced Preaching Class. The Daughters of the King will be singing. If you are not otherwise occupied, you are invited to attend.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

Girl for summer live-in. Could work elsewhere in the afternoons. See Miss Guy.
Service Station Job for a fellow. See Miss Guy.

There is a summer job available in connection with Northwest College and the extended Work Study Program. Two positions are available in the Kirkland Police Department and two in the City Office. Applicants - men or women - must qualify under the Work Study Program, after which they would be interviewed by their prospective employers. Those interested should contact Mr. Hodges.

CONGRATULATIONS:

Congratulations to the new AMS and AWS officers. They are:

AWS	AMS
President - Barbara May	President - John Tobin
1st Vice President - Chris Jacobson	Vice President - Gene Anderson
2nd Vice President - Jenny Frice	Secretary-Treasurer - Dave Rodli
Secretary - Evelyn Smith
Treasurer - Barbara Warneke

ATTENTION BASKETBALLERS:

There will be another "meeting" of the future basketball team Monday night, May 10, 1971.

GYMNASIUM RECREATIONAL HOURS:

The gym is open for general recreation, fellows and gals, Monday nights and Thursday nights for the remainder of the quarter. Stay alive by keeping in good condition.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE:

Thursday - May 6 - WOM - Warren Erickson
Friday - May 7 - Rev. Duane Palser of West Seattle Assembly of God.
Monday - May 10- ASB
Tuesday - May 11- Royal Brougham
Wednesday- May 12- President Hurst
Thursday - May 13- WOM - Missions

ALL SCHOOL BANQUET:

In hours on Saturday night are 2:00 a.m.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY:

Snoqualmie Valley Assembly of God needs a piano player for Sundays. Transportation can be provided. Contact Sandy Williams 105, or Call Pastor Johnston 888-2480.