

STUDENT BULLETIN

November 4, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The best preparation for tomorrow is to do today's work superbly well.

--William Osler

KARISMA PICTURES:

The last re-take of Karisma pictures will be during fourth period, Friday, Nov. 5 in the Student Body Office in the SUB.

ATTENTION EVANGELISM MIG:

Sea-Tac witness will meet as usual Friday night in the SUB Prayer Chapel at 6:30. There will be no U-Witness on Saturday night, November 6.

LOST:

Ray Braun, B-211, lost a new record in the cafeteria several weeks ago and would like to have it returned. The title of the record is "Rex Humbard in Hawaii."

HOME MISSIONS MIG DIVISION:

There will be a meeting for Home Missions members on Friday at 7:45 p.m. at Darrell and Dianne Woods' house. If you have any questions see Sallee Conn. Even if you do not belong but are interested in home missions, please come.

EMPLOYMENT:

A special 13-week project is being sponsored by the State to aid the unemployed or low income families. If you know of a student's spouse who would be interested in working 40 hours a week for approximately 13 weeks, please have them submit their name to Mrs. Baunsgard at the reception desk. If there is interest, the matter will be persued by the Business Office.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

All members of the servicemen's Mig, there is an important meeting Friday, Nov. 5 during Chapel in C-3.

YAC:

Are you looking for an extra blessing? This weekend is Youth Action Crusade in Olympia. We need your support! All interested students please sign up in the Administration Office now.

LOOKING AHEAD:

We are starting now to plan our Spring banquet. Anyone interested in working in some area, please contact Weldyn Houger or Linda Pearson.

KNCC NEWS:

Public service

Those who have questions on any issue in any area, please turn it in at the Administration Office, Weldyn Houger or Ray Braun. KNCC is starting a question and answer program for your interest. Also, don't forget to turn in your favorite songs to KNCC. Turn them in at the Request Box in the SUB.

Special interest

Just as no one knows the day nor the hour of the Second Coming, so no one knows the date nor the hour of "I Wish We'd All Been Ready", a special broadcast. (The day is a Wednesday). Guess the date & time. The winner will win a free album. Turn in your answers to Weldyn Houger, Ray Braun, Jim Book or the Administration Building. The last day for answers to be turned in is Tuesday, November 9.

ROOM MATE NEEDED:

Laurie Justason needs a Christian roommate. She lives at 1721 Taylor North in Seattle. If you know of someone call AT 5-0937 at home or MA 4-5022 at work.
