

STUDENT BULLETIN

November 9, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Love of pleasure is the disease which makes men most despicable.

WINTER QUARTER REGISTRATION:

Registration for students now on campus is November 15 - 24. Please plan and prepare accordingly.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

Girl needed to work Mondays and Saturdays 5 to 11 p.m. Must have a car. (Waitress work at Snack Bar)

Girl needed to work housecleaning Thursdays from 11:30 or noon to 4 or 4:30 p.m. (Must furnish own transportation to and from Bellevue. See Miss Guy if interested.)

INSTRUMENTAL ENSEMBLE:

Dick Evans will be directing a class in "Instrumental Ensemble" during the Winter quarter. If interested, be sure to get it on your schedule.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY:

There is a need for directors and helpers for Bible Clubs. Also, anyone willing to provide transportation contact Emily Carpenter or Mr. Turner. Thank you.

A piano player is needed for Snoqualime Assembly of God. Dedication and faithfulness wanted more than talent. Transportation will be provided. Contact Jerry Maddicks B-105.

KNCC NEWS:

You may win a free album by guessing when the special broadcast on the Second Coming will be broadcast. The last day to turn in your answers has been changed. It will be Tuesday, November 16. Turn in your answers to Weldyn Houger, Ray Braun, Jim Book or the Administration Building.

BASIC YOUTH CONFLICTS:

Students attending the Basic Youth Conflicts Seminar and who would want to take sack lunches should sign up in the Cafeteria.

ATTENTION EVANGELISM MIG:

There will be no Sea-Tac Witness or U-Witness this weekend due to Basic Youth Conflicts. However, if an individual or group of individuals would like to go on their own, please contact John Tobin for materials necessary.

PEP BAND:

There will be Pep Band practice tonight, November 9 at 7:00 p.m. in S-2.

OPERATION JOB SEARCH:

For use of students, faculty and staff, a Directory of Student's Sales and Services is being developed by Operation Job Search Personnel. If you wish to be listed in this Directory, obtain the form at the Administration Building and fill it out before November 15. It should be returned to Miss Guy's Box.
