THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

James 1:4, 5

WOM:

Last week's offering for Operation Turkey was $355.98. Pray that God will bless your giving through those participating in Operation Turkey.

SUMMER INTERN APPLICANTS:

Interviews for interns will be from Monday, November 15 through Wednesday, November 17. Sign up in the Administration Building. It is also imperative that intern applicants pick up and fill out interview sheets by November 11. Answers should be typed on the questionnaire. Questionnaires are also in the Administration Building.

FROSH EXEC:

There will be a Freshman Class Executive officers meeting on Monday, November 15 at 2:30 in the Conference room of Bronson Hall.

ELEMENTARY SWEDISH:

It is recommended that those who took Swedish 101 and 102 (three-hour courses) last year pick up with Swedish 102B this winter quarter. If you completed the 102 course last year, add the letter B to the number 102 (102B) this coming winter quarter, to avoid duplication of the same course number completed last year.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

The Tuesday night prayer meeting will be held Thursday night this week. Meet at the SUB Chapel at 7:30.

CAN YOU HELP?

Did anyone tape Monday evening's lecture by Hal Lindsey at Seattle Pacific College? If so, contact Gary Watne, Box 1157.

KNCC NEWS:

Hurry and turn in your guesses for the date and time of the Broadcast on the Second Coming. (The day is a Wednesday). The Last day to turn in your guess is Tuesday, November 16. Turn them in to Jim Book, Ray Braun, Weldyn Houger or the Administration Building. You could win a free record!

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR STUDENT BULLETIN:

Students are encouraged to use the Student Bulletin to announce meetings rather than requesting announcement time in Chapel, as the Chapel time is fairly short and we would like to preserve the sacredness of the hour. Announcements should be submitted by noon on Monday and Wednesday in order to be printed in the Tuesday and Thursday bulletins. Thank you for your cooperation.

EVANGELISM MIG:

There will be no Sea-Tac Witness or U-Witness this weekend due to Basic Youth Conflicts. However, if an individual or group of individuals would like to go on their own, please contact John Tobin for materials necessary.
