

STUDENT BULLETIN

November 16, 1971

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

James 5:16

LAST CALL:

The student Sales and Services Directory will soon be made up. Do you wish to be included? Fill out the form in the Administration Building right away and leave the information in Miss Guy's box.

OPERATION TURKEY:

Two guys are needed to complete our teams. If interested, please contact Duane Thomas, B-115.

MOBILE BLOOD BANK:

The Blood Bank will be here November 18 and 19. All blood given goes in a College account. You and your immediate family has access to this account. If you can give, plan to do so. Watch for time sign up sheets.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

Members please meet at 7:30 tonight in the SUB Chapel for our prayer meeting.

AMATEUR RADIO:

A reminder to all students interested in Amateur Radio. There will be a meeting Thursday, November 18 at 7:30 p.m. in S-2, in the SUB. We hope to start a club so all those who can please attend.

COLLEGE CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA:

There will be a College Choir and Orchestra practice at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday and 1:30 p.m. on Thursday.

COUNSELING INTERNSHIP, PRACTICAL THEOLOGY 496:

A limited number of students will be admitted to the Counseling Internship Class. Prerequisites include General Psychology, Basic Youth Conflicts, Pastoral Counseling and preferably a senior standing. If you are interested, make application at the Dean of Students Office. The group meets on a seminar basis once a week for one hour.

KNCC NEWS:

Today is the last day to turn in your guesses as to when the special broadcast "I Wish We'd All Been Ready" will be aired. Guess the date and time (Only 2 possible dates, November 17 and December 1). Turn in your answers to Jim Book, Ray Braun, Weldyn Houger or the Administration Building.

WORLD MISSIONS MIG:

There will be a short business session of the Africa Division Thursday night at 8:30 p.m. in the SUB Chapel. Everyone please come.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

A girl is needed to work Thanksgiving Day in a home. See Miss Guy.

Wanted: A Man or Lady student who can do simple type drawings, cartoons and printing. See Miss Guy.

EVANGELISM MIG:

We will be meeting this weekend for our usual witnesses - Sea-Tac Friday night, U-Witness Saturday night. Remember to bring your car as transportation is a problem. Attention men, If you are interested in participating in First Avenue Witness, See John Tobin.

INTERNSHIP APPLICANTS:

All Summer Internship applicants, sign up for an interview for tonight if you have not done so.

WHERE IS IT?

If you borrowed a Campbell's Writing Manual from Beverly Ashby at the first of the term, please return it to P402.