THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The halls of fame are open wide and they are always full;
Some go in by the door called "push,"
And some by the door called "pull"

EVANGELISM MIG:

In spite of Homecoming, there will be Sea-Tac Witness at 6:00 Friday and University Witness at 5:30 on Saturday. Let's go!

GOSPEL TEAM REPORT:

Exciting things have been happening in the Gospel Team MIG this quarter. On the 10th of January, Boyd Powers preached at Zion Mission in Seattle and two men accepted Jesus Christ as Savior. On January 17th Dave Rodstol and the Witnesses went to Mineral, Washington and that evening three young people gave their hearts to the Lord. On that same evening, Ken O'Brien and the Conquerors ministered in song at Bethel Assembly in Alderwood Manor. A missionary spoke and five were converted and two baptized with the Holy Spirit. Please join us in prayer for these converts and for the teams that go out each weekend to reach them.

CAMPUS DAY:

When you write home to your friends, why not invite them to visit Campus Day- 71 April 2.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH MIG:

The Children & Youth MIG will be helping in a Sunday School service this Sunday at the Children's Orthopedic hospital. Anyone is welcome who is interested. If you want to go, please contact Janet Hartsfield P-207.

HOMECOMING MUMS:

Don't forget to sign up for your homecoming mum for that special person. Sign-up sheets are in the Cafeteria, SUB and Residence Halls.

MEALS ON FRIDAY:

The Friday noon lunch hour will be from 11:30 to 1:30 as usual. However, due to a change in class schedule and Chapel hour, students will be permitted to eat during the Chapel hour, if necessary, without penalty. There will be some leniency in the 1:30 cut-off hour. Also, Friday night dinner hour will be from 4:30 to 5:00 with consideration with those who arrive late because of work schedules.
