LETTER TO STUDENTS FROM MR. PECOTA:

I thought I would drop you a line to say hello to all of you and to let you know how I miss "y'all". I would ask for your prayer. In fact, I would advise it. I have not yet decided whether I should take revenge on my own students for all the work I'm doing here or whether I should be more sympathetic. You'd better pray for the latter. I'm enjoying the work here at Phillips, but it is going to be tough sledding all the way, especially since there isn't any snow. I'm living in the married students quarters. Quite satisfactory, but not home. Would you believe I'm cooking for myself? Care to join me for dinner? You'd never complain again-- you probably wouldn't live through it! No, it's not that bad. I prayed that God would give you a good spiritual emphasis week. May God grant all of you the greatest spiritual and educational victories you have ever experienced. P.S. Please take care of Mrs. P. for me. In Him, Mr. Pecota.
