January 20, 1972

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

--I Cor. 13:13

EVANGELISM MIG:

There will be Sea-Tac Witness this weekend on both Friday and Saturday nights. Please meet in the SUB Chapel for a time of prayer before leaving promptly at 6:30.

ATTENTION JUNIORS:

If you wish to sign your name to the Junior ad for the annual, please come to the Administration Office and ask for the special sheet on which to sign. Friday, January 21 is the deadline.

FRESHMEN:

Remember the prayer meeting tonight in the SUB Chapel at 8:00. Come expecting from the Lord.

MISSIONS MIG:

All those with slides for the Missions MIG P.R. Team, please contact Molly Woodbury as soon as possible! Slides are needed from all parts of the world.

AMATEUR RADIO:

There will be a meeting of the Amateur Radio Club Thursday, January 20 at 7:00 p.m. This will be our first regular meeting. We will begin laying plans for the year and will begin studying for Amateur Radio Licenses. Meet in S-2.

JACK CHASE:

Rev. Jack Chase will be with us Friday, January 21 as our Chapel guest and performing the half-time activity at the basketball game that evening. Rev. Chase has traveled extensively giving assemblies to high schools and colleges demonstrating wheelchair basketball of which he is an expert. He has represented the United States on such teams before. You won't want to miss him this Friday.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY:

Rev. Miller from Snohomish needs a choir director, preferably a lady. Travel expenses and some remuneration available. Contact Dean Rozell if interested.

CORRECTION:

Rev. McAllister will be unable to keep his Superintendent's Week appointments as originally scheduled. Instead, he will be available on Monday, January 24. Time for interviews will be 10:30 to 12:00 in the District Office. (Sign-up at the college's reception desk.) He will meet with Northwest District students for lunch at 12:00 noon on Monday also.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

There will be a MIG meeting during Chapel in C-3 Friday, January 21. We will discuss center improvement.

HOMECOMING BAND:

Everyone interested in being in the Homecoming Band, please be present at the Practice tonight at 7 p.m. in S-2. Homecoming will be here soon, so we encourage you to be present.
