

STUDENT BULLETIN

February 17, 1972

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The man who seeks your advise too often is probably looking for praise rather than information.

--Marvin G. Gregory

WOM:

Don't forget tomorrow's offering for ICI. Our goal is $360. Allow God to bless you through giving. "God loveth a cheerful giver." Your giving last week for Internship totalled $115.37. Operation Christmas monies are still coming in. The present balance is $3,559.50.

FROM THE LIBRARY:

The library will be open Saturday regular hours, but will be closed on Monday, February 21. Also, the library has a cassette tape of Robert Ekvall's talk, New Open Doors to Mainland China, on two hour reserve. Students wanting more information on China may check out the books on display by the library entrance.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE:

Please check our bargain table and see what 10¢ will buy! Check the bulletin board for little blue flags that mark special bargains.

VALENTINE'S BANQUET:

The following note was received from Jack Geer regarding the King's Teens banquet:

"I do so appreciate the very fine contribution made by the students of Northwest College in helping serve and counsel at our recent King's Teens Valentine Banquet. They were excellent and a real credit to your very fine school. Also the music provided by the Northwesterners under the direction of Dale Lidstrom was great. We are still getting compliments on their ministry. Northwest College can be proud of these students. Also, our thanks to Bill Black for his part in coordinating the young people to serve and counsel. He was a real help that evening."

GOSPEL TEAM:

Any guy interested in joining a Gospel Team please Contact Dave Cassar in 302 or Rick McGregor in B-306. Also a piano player is needed.

CORRECTION:

Last time our congratulations were to Dan Lund regarding the Radio Club. So Sorry, Dan, It's Dan Crawford. He is the Amateur Radio Club instructor and president and has just received his second license.
