

STUDENT BULLETIN

April 27, 1972

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

O Give thanks unto the Lord for he is good: because his mercy endureth forever.

--Psalm 118:1

MARRIED STUDENTS ASSOCIATION:

There will be a meeting Monday, May 1 in which new officers will be elected. Please ask the person you are nominating before the meeting to make sure he or she is eligible.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE:

Our last Commentary Sale of this school year is May 1-5. Check for details in the Bookstore. Big savings on reference books, up to 30%.

Graduates - we still have a few orders that have not been picked up. Extra announcements are still available.

PAYROLL CHECKS:

Payroll checks for on-campus employees should be picked up at the Reception Desk in the Administration Building anytime after Friday morning. Those owing on account may wish to make a payment at that time.

COLLEGE CHOIR:

College choir will be having rehearsals Thursday, at 3:00 p.m. beginning today and continuing until the Spring Concert on May 18. Students who were in college choir during Winter Quarter are invited to attend.

WOM GIVING:

Don't forget this Friday's offering for Home Missions. We need $604.85. This means each student needs to give $1.35. "Give and it shall be given unto you."

FRESHMEN SOCIAL:

A Freshman Class Social will be held at Alexander Beach on Lake Sammamish on Saturday, April 29. Fun, Food, Fellowship and games. Plan now to attend.

BIBLE READING CONTEST:

The Bible Reading contest will be held in the Learning Center Monday, May 1 at 7:00 p.m. Participants include Norm Lund, Karla Gebert, Kathy Bodtker, Steve Howard, Dianne Wood, Mark McKay and Ross Johnson.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS:

Coming back next year? Interested in radio? You can be an announcer. Audition now. This offer is open to girls too. Only involves two hours of your time a week. If you are interested, see Jim Book, Roger Ostrem or John Crawford.

WEEKEND WITNESS:

Friday night we will be taking off for Sea-Tac. Meet in the SUB prayer Chapel at 6:30 for a time of prayer, share, and instruction before leaving. Also, Saturday it's the witness effort at Herfey's in Bellevue. Meet in the SUB Chapel at 7:30 before leaving. Also on Saturday night, you can participate in the Seattle Center Witness. Meet at 6:30 in the SUB. Also if you would like to lead this witness, see John Tobin.

RIDE NEEDED:

Jerrie Hall wishes a ride from Eastside Free Methodist Day Care Center in Bellevue to Kirkland at 6:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Contact her via Tom Hall, Box 1176 if you can assist.
