

STUDENT BULLETIN

May 4, 1972

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

--Philippians 4:6

SPEECH CLASS:

ATTENTION !! Mr. Tarno's Speech class WILL MEET on Friday.

BIBLE READING CONTEST:

Congratulations to Dianne Wood who was selected for first place in the contest. Kathy Bodtker and Mark McKay were given second and third places.

WOM:

Don't forget the offering this Friday for Summer Internship.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS:

Accounts should be paid as soon as possible. Any student who has not paid in full and cleared with the Business Office cannot take finals, until satisfactory arrangements are made. Any student anticipating the need for financial aid through the College for next year should make application now. This applies to National Defense Student Loans, Educational Opportunity Grants or College Work Study. New applications must be made each year.

ATTENTION SENIORS:

Pastor Ken Woll of the First Assembly of God Church in Puyallup will be on campus to meet with students who might be interested in a position as assistant pastor in their church pursuant to graduation. He will be on campus Wednesday, May 10 between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Those interested in an appointment with him should sign up with Mrs. Baungard in the Administration Office immediately.

WEEKEND WITNESSING:

Do you know that when you witness at Sea-Tac you are spreading the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth. Those people waiting for planes take the message you share with them from one end of the globe to the other. Have you shared Jesus Christ at Sea-Tac? You will have the opportunity this weekend as a group of enthusiastic witnesses will be meeting in the SUB Prayer Chapel on Friday night at 6:30 for a time of prayer before leaving to spread the gospel.

Don't forget that those right around us in the Kirkland-Bellevue area also need to hear the same gospel. Bellevue witness will be meeting in the SUB Prayer Chapel Saturday night at 7:30 for a time of prayer before leaving.

Seattle Center is also a natural for witnessing opportunities. People are just standing around killing time - you can make that time the most vital in their lives. At 6:30 on Saturday night meet in the SUB Prayer Chapel for a time of prayer before leaving for the Center.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY:

Rev. Del Roberts, pastor of South Everett Assembly of God will interview prospective Associate Pastors and/or a worker in Children's Church. He will be in the Conference Room, Bronson Hall Friday, May 5 at 10:15 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

CHAPEL:

Be sure to be in Chapel on May 10 to hear Dianne Wood and Kathy Bodtker give their orations. It is something you won't want to miss.
