THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

One of the best ways to lose a friend is to tell him something for his own good.

--Marvin Gregory

COMMUNITY SERVICE NIG:

The Fish Program can use babysitters who can be called in an emergency and would be willing to donate their time. If interested, give your name to Sandy Britt P-511 or Miss Williams. Also, we need transportation for those who are interested in working in resthomes. Contact Sandy Britt or Miss Williams.

PUYALLUP YOUTH ACTION CRUSADE:

The first YAC weekend witness of this year will be Nov. 3, 4, 5 at Puyallup. There will be a training session Friday evening, a day of witnessing on Saturday and participation in the morning worship service on Sunday A.M. This one is close enough that we will stay on campus at night and commute for the activities. If you would like to participate in this outreach, sign up with the receptionist in the Ness Administration Building. If you have any questions, See Mr. Turner.

NEEDED:

Four more copies of the white Spanish songbook, Himnos Inspirados Selectos. Will pay $1.00 each if you care to sell your songbook. See Miss Williams.

BOOKSTORE NEWS:

Graduates, please stop by and help us pick out the announcements you would like. Also, our flags are out again. Come see what's on special. Commentary sale next week. Ask about details.

PEP BAND:

There will be Pep Band practice on Thursday night at 7:30 in S-2.

HOME BIBLE CLUBS:

There are still opportunities available for those interested in working in Home Bible Clubs. If interested, See Linda Boyer, P-610.

HARVESTIME SOCIAL:

Come on out to the Harvestime Social on Saturday, November 4 in the gym from 8 to 10. There will be singing, contests, games, skits, food, and good Christian fellowship. We'll be looking for you there.

MUSICAL OPPORTUNITY:

We need people for contemporary music groups. Electric guitar, female pianist, electric bass guitar. Must be able to sing as well. Opportunity to earn part-time income in exciting ministry. Contact Dean of Students Office.

WOM OFFERING:

Thank you for your offering last Friday of $346.16, which went toward Internship. You will be given another opportunity to give to another "Outreach Ministry." This Friday will be our Operation Turkey Chapel and our offering will go towards this project. "Give and it shall be given unto you. . . it shall be measured to you again."

SOPHOMORES:

All sophomores interested in helping on decorations for the Harvestime Social come to a meeting at 6:00 p.m. tonight in the Northwest Room.

NORTHWEST COLLEGE ARTISTS:

A group of Northwest College Artists are having a showing in the college library. Admission is free.

SHACK SHACK:

Someone borrowed a pen from the Snack Shack. Please return it promptly as it is needed very much.

SUMMER INTERNSHIP:

Please be sure and get in your applications for summer internship by Monday, November 6. This is the deadline. Applications are available in the Administration Building.
