

STUDENT BULLETIN

January 9, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

ATTENTION PEP BAND MEMBERS:

We would like to be able to play at the game this Saturday evening so please turn out for rehearsal Thursday night at 8:30 in S-2. New Members welcome.

MARANATHA SOUNDS:

Maranatha Sounds has openings for spares either alto or soprano. If interested, please go to S-9 for an audition.

BASIC YOUTH CONFLICTS INSTITUTE:

It is time now to register for the Spring Seminar in Seattle (April 30 - May 4). The deadline for registering through the college is March 15th. Registration forms are available at the Registrar's Office in Bronson Hall.

COMING - DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT LUNCHEONS:

A series of luncheons with District Superintendents and students from the states within the districts will be announced soon. If you are from Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Alaska or Washington, please watch for your luncheon date.

BOOKSTORE NEWS:

A "White Sale" in the Bookstore - curious? - come see!

KCNC:

We need more announcers! If interested, contact Jim Book G404, John Crawford G400, or Roger Ostrem B-III.

PORTRAITS FROM AMERICAN PHOTOGRAPHIC:

If you ordered and paid for your portraits more than eight weeks ago but have not received them, please contact Mr. Gustafson. Leave your name in his mail box.

FRIDAY NIGHT:

The Food Fair will begin at 7:00 p.m. sharp in the Cafeteria with a grand combined dinner of international foods. Everything from Mexican Enchiladas to African Stew! (come with an appetite). Be sure to dress casual as we will be eating picnic style upon a floor of straw. You will be sure to have a good time as the challenge of Foreign Missions is given in drama, mass media presentation, and music. See you there!

FLYING SEMINAR:

Sign ups can still be made through January. For information, see Miss JoAnn Underwood, Secretary to President Hurst. Winter Quarter lecture series is in progress, and students going on the tour can earn three college credits. Special questions may be directed to President Hurst or to Dean Millard (re: Pay Later Plan, etc).
