

STUDENT BULLETIN

April 10, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Always be thankful to the Father who has made us fit to share all the wonderful things that belong to those who live in the kingdom of light.

--Colossians 1:12 Living Letters

HORSEMANSHIP CLASS:

All horsemanship students please contact Coach Kinney in the overflow room of the Chapel on Wednesday, April 11th. It is important as the final billing will be paid to Central Stables this week.

AHHHHHHH

It's spring! Why not have a little extra time out for doin' your thing? Sound good? AGP reading guarantees to at least double your reading rate, thereby making more time available for -- whatever. Starts April 16th at 7:00 p.m. in the Learning Center. $25. Sign up now at Registrar's Office. Basic Youth people will have no conflict.

FORMALS:

A new shipment of formals has arrived at the Gustafson's. Phone any day after 5:00 p.m. for an appointment.

FINANCIAL AID:

Students who will be needing financial aid for the next school year, 1973-74, should make application as soon as possible. There is a "time factor" in all such programs, National Defense Loans or Federally Insured Loans (through a Bank). All such requests require the Confidential Statement along with the application. You should apply now so the application can be serviced and the financial award received before the Fall quarter.

N.D.S. LOANS:

Students who have N.D.S. Loans and who are NOT returning to Northwest must meet with Mr. Spradley, Financial Aids Officer for an exit interview. Your college records are not complete without this. Make an appointment soon.

WOM OFFERING:

This Friday will be our WOM Offering. Our offering will go towards our Home Missions Projects. Last quarter we fell short of our goal so we need your prayer and your support.

ALL SCHOOL BANQUET:

"This Could Be the Dawning" is the theme for the All School Banquet which will be held this Saturday night. Tomorrow is the deadline for picking up your tickets. We encourage everyone to attend this event and rides will be provided if needed. (Sign up at the Receptionist Desk). Pictures will begin at 4:45 -- so come early and avoid the rush. This is one of the greatest events of the school year so we hope to see each one of you there. In-hours for campus students is 2:00 a.m. There will be no late-ins issued beyond 2:00 a.m.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE:

Save - Save - Save -- Big "Half Price Sale." One shelf loaded with good buys. Come and See.

CULTURAL SERIES:

Dr. Norbert N. Einstein will be on campus tonight in the Learning Center at 8:00 p.m. His subject of discussion will be "1973 Through the Crystal Ball." Don't miss this!

AMATEUR HOUR:

Auditions continue tonight, Wednesday, and Thursday from 7:00 to 9:00. If you have a presentation, bring it to us on one of these nights. You must audition in order to be on the program.

KCNC:

KCNC is back on the air now that Spiritual Emphasis week is over. tune in from 6:00 to 12:00, Monday through Thursday for gospel music and programs.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

Full time typist and Receptionist in Bellevue. Part time job for student interested in data processing and with good math background, Seattle. Part time (April & May) full time summer work in Seattle. Need 10-key adding machine experience and Telephone. See Miss Guy for any of these opportunities.
