

STUDENT BULLETIN

April 17, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

It is far safer to know too little than too much. People will condemn the one, though they will resent being called upon to exert themselves to follow the other.

--Samuel Butler

CONGRATULATIONS:

To John Waring and Jan Rice who successfully passed CLEP tests in College Algebra for an award of five college credits. The tests are nationally recognized and are available on campus. See Dean Millard if you think you have background in an area that would offer possibility of earning college credit by examination. First NC student to attempt the tests was Mrs. Betty Jo Kenney, who came through with flying colors on a first try in General Psychology.

STEWARDSHIP SESSIONS:

Mr. Crowder will be conducting Stewardship sessions during Chapel in L-1 on April 18 and 19. Any student interested in this is invited to attend.

SENIORS:

All seniors are asked to meet in Room C-3 during 5th period on Wednesday, April 18, to take the Bible Content Test. The purpose is to establish norms for comparison with the Freshman scores on the test. No special preparation is required for the test. Just show up at the appointed time with pencil in hand.
