

STUDENT BULLETIN

May 1, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

"No man is an island," wrote John Donne. Yet too many of us still fear the loss of self through serving others. Actually, it's the only way to "find" yourself.

--Marvin Gregory

WOM OFFERING:

Thank you for your giving last Friday towards I.C.I. Due to Basic Youth Conflicts, the WOM offering will be this Thursday. This offering will go towards Internship. Remember to pray for those who are serving as our college interns for this summer.

BOOKSTORE NEWS:

The last commentary sale for this school year is all this week. If we don't have what you want, we'll order it for you. Ask us about details! Maranatha III is here! Also, we have other new records.

FRESHMEN:

Let's get together on May 19 at 8:00 p.m. for "Do Luau." You guys no can come, if you no work - for your Kau-Kau (food). So KOKUA - which means help, is needed from everyone planning on coming. Details of "Da Luau" will be explained at the All Freshman Class meeting, May 3, 1973, in the Learning Center at 3:00 p.m. Just come and KOKUA! (help)
