

STUDENT BULLETIN

October 2, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

--Psalms 27:1

LOST AND FOUND:

Lost - a set of keys on a praying hands key chain. Please contact Sandy Britt in P-610 if you have any idea where they are.

Found - Girls wire rimmed glasses in the Gym after PE on Thursday, September 27. See Mr. Kinney.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL:

Intramural football teams must have their lists in by Wednesday morning to Mr. Kinney.

AWS FASHION SHOW:

"Let's Face It" -- Girls! The AWS Fashion Show is coming up next Wednesday, October 10, 7:30 in the Learning Center.

JUNIORS:

On Monday, October 9, we are having elections for president and vice-president of our class. It is necessary that you do attend this meeting. Until then, begin thinking of appropriate persons to be nominated.

LIBRARY NEWS:

The Library now has material on the Assembly of God Graduate School. Students may check these out.

JOB OPPORTUNITY:

A couple needs a reliable baby sitter regularly, Mondays through Fridays, 5:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Two could possibly split the shift. Contact Miss Guy.

MUSIC LESSONS:

Students interested in studying brass instruments, saxophone or accordian, please contact Dr. Swaffield.

CAN YOU HELP:

Anyone who has a set of drums, contact Dr. Swaffield.