

STUDENT BULLETIN

January 18, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Do all the good you can, By all the means you can, In all the ways you can, In all the places you can, At all the times you can, To all the people you can, As long as ever you can.

--John Wesley

ATTENTION FLYING SEMINAR STUDENTS:

Copies of the Duffield Handbook have arrived in the Bookstore.

JUNIOR CLASS:

At the next class meeting there will be an election of a vice-president. Duane Thomas, former vice president is not able to remain in the position due to numerous other obligations. Please be thinking about someone for this position. The class offering will be taken for the Sheryl Ignell Memorial Chapel Organ Fund also. Come prepared for a class picture for the Karisma ad from the Junior Class.

PEP BAND:

Pep Band Practice tonight after the service at 9:00 p.m. in S-2.

FOUND:

A girl's ring in the vicinity of Perks West Wing. If you lost a ring, please contact room 314 Beatty Hall.

CLASS MEETINGS:

This is a reminder that class meetings will be held on Monday, January 22 during Chapel. Meet in the following locations: Freshmen - Chapel, Sophomores - L-1, Juniors - C-3, and Seniors - S-2.

FOOD FAIR PARTICIPANTS:

Thank you, thank you, thank you for all your help in making the Food Fair a success again this year. Everyone did outstanding work, especially some of you...you know who. You were a blessing to us and to your school. We trust you received from the Lord as you donated your time and talents.

HOME BIBLE CLUBS:

All persons interested in working in Home Bible Clubs can get involved! If you love children and have a desire to be used of God in a great way, there's a place for you. See Linda Boyer P-609 this week.

SPEED READING:

The AGP Speed Reading course on campus will revolutionize your study habits! --and at only $25 for the three week program. This effective, academically-oriented, and fully-guaranteed course in rapid reading and study skills will be taught by Mr. Randolph and it will demand a minimum of class time. This course is a must for students interested in gaining maximum advantage from the college experience. Remember, if the course doesn't at least double your habitual reading speed in 21 days, your entire tuition fee will be refunded. Pre-register at Bronson Hall.
