

STUDENT BULLETIN

November 15, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

It has been said that ulcers come from mountain climbing over mole hills.

--anonymous

FROM THE LIBRARY:

The library needs a copy of the lecture of Dr. Breese for Wednesday p.m., November 7, 1973. If someone has a good copy of this lecture, please contact the library.

CAR FOR SALE:

Chrysler Newport, 1968. All power and air conditioning. Good condition, $925. Contact Lauri Ahonen, 822-7690 or Box 874.

LADIES AUXILIARY BAZAAR:

Get a head start on your Christmas shopping by coming to the SUB S-9 on Saturday, November 17. The time will be from 9:00 to 5:00. There will be new items, used items, and baked goods. All proceeds go towards a scholarship fund.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT REHEARSAL:

All those involved in the Christmas concert are reminded of the rehearsal tonight in the Chapel - Orchestra 7:00, Choir 7:30.

MUSIC LESSONS:

Anyone interested in taking lessons on instruments other than piano and organ please sign the sheet on Mr. Swaffield's door in the SUB.

"THE RETURN"

Come and see the exciting prophetic film "The Return" narrated by Hal Lindsey, author of The Late Great Planet Earth. It will be shown in the Chapel on Saturday, November 17 at 7:00 p.m.

JOB OPPORTUNITY:

Man needed for service station work. See Miss Guy.

SEAMSTRESS:

An experienced seamstress wants work. Reasonable prices. Will gladly do sewing alterations and clothing repair. See Michelle Parker in Apt. 21 of the Married Student Apartments or call 822-4341.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE:

Friday, November 16 - WOM
Monday, November 19 - Associated Men Students
Tuesday, November 20 - Rollin Carlson
Wednesday, November 21 - WOM

MONROE OUTREACH:

Two cars will be travelling to Monroe on Saturday, November 17 for a follow-up crusade to last Saturday's outreach. Those who have had some experience in personal work are urged to help. Sign up in the Administration Building to go in either the morning car, 9:00 a.m. or the afternoon car, 1:00.