STUDENT BULLETIN
November 29, 1973

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.
                    --Psalm 16:5

KCNC RADIO CLUB MEMBERS:

There is going to be a meeting tomorrow, Friday, November 30, 1973 during Chapel in the SUB. It is very important that you be there.

SPEED READING REMINDER:

Speed reading begins Thursday, January 3 at 7:00 p.m. in L building. We're getting an early start so the techniques can be used for winter quarter's work. Sign up now in the Administration Building so materials can be ordered. The $36 tuition need not be paid until the first class session.

BOOKSTORE NEWS:

Our "gift idea table" is being used and changed every day - come take a look. Next week will be our "end-of-the-quarter sale". 15% off on everything except text books.

CHILDREN/YOUTH MIG:

All those interested in a ministry at the Children's Orthopedic Hospital on December
2, 1973, please contact Rhonda Lindgren, P-311. We need guys as well as girls.
This time will be the Christmas program.

FOUND:

A small gold heart locket with a picture inside was found in front of Perks Hall.
Check with the receptionist at the Administration Building if it is yours.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT:

Tonight, November 29, is the Christmas Concert. It will be in the Chapel at 7:30 p.m. Plan to attend this exciting annual event.

OPENHOUSE - PERKS HALL:

This evening after the concert, all faculty and wives, staff and students are invited to Perk's Hall to view the room and door decorations. It will be open until 10:00 p.m.

CHRISTMAS THROUGH THE AGES:

This Saturday night, December 1, 7:30 p.m., is the AWS-AMS Christmas party. Come out for fun, entertainment, refreshments and a glimpse of what Christmas really should mean to us. It will be held in the cafeteria.
