

STUDENT BULLETIN

January 4, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Sometimes it seems that people hear best what we do not say.
---Eric Hoffer

PEP BAND:

All members of Pep Band are encouraged to be present at rehearsal on Thursday in S-9, 7:00 p.m.

MARANATHA SOUNDS OPENING:

The Maranatha Sounds have a vacancy for one alto part. Anyone interested in auditioning should contact Mr. Waggoner as soon as possible.

CHILDREN/YOUTH MIG:

All those interested in Children's Orthopedic Hospital ministry, please contact Rhonda Lindgren, P-311. We will be going to the hospital on January 6, this Sunday. We need guys as well as girls to help us.

FLYING SEMINAR:

A slide presentation on an overview of the Spring Flying Seminar will be given this coming Monday evening in the C-Building (room 2). All students are welcomed to attend without obligation this first in the Flying Seminar Lecture series.

JOB OPPORTUNITY:

Full-time custodian needed at a local church. Large apartment available with an adequate base salary. Thirty to 40 hour work week and ministerial opportunity in the church. See the Dean of Students for information.

FEDERAL SUMMER INTERNSHIPS:

Last summer the Federal Government employed 489 students from colleges and universities throughout the country as interns. They expect that the program will provide opportunities for about the same number of students this summer. They endeavor to make certain that the students receive assignments related to their career goals and that they will have an opportunity to make a contribution to missions of Federal departments and agencies. If you are interested in more information about this program, contact the Dean of Students Office.

KCNC:

KCNC is broadcasting now starting at 4:00 p.m. Be sure and tune in.

BASKETBALL:

There is a basketball game this Saturday night at 6:00 p.m. at Seattle Pacific College gymnasium. Support the Eagles! There is also a game at NC gymnasium on Monday night, January 7 at 8:00 p.m.