

STUDENT BULLETIN

January 10, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon he shall receive a reward.
--I Corinthians 3:14

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY:

A position is open for someone who is able to organize and direct a youth choir -- remuneration is offered. For more information, contact Tom Crabtree at 827-5571, or leave a note at the Administration Office.

TIME TO RUN:

"Time to Run" is a Billy Graham film that is being shown in some of the local theatres in the Greater Seattle area, February 6 - 12. If students wish to attend they may. Consult posters in the Residence Halls and SUB regarding ticket information.

CLASS MEETINGS:

Monday, January 14, class meetings will be held for the purpose of selecting a princess from each class for Homecoming royalty. The classes will meet at the following places:

Freshmen - Chapel
Sophomores - L-1
Juniors - C-3
Seniors - S-9

NEWS FROM DARLA DOUGLAS:

Note to the students "I would like to thank all of you for being so concerned about me in my recent wreck. Thank you so much for praying for me. It means a lot."

KCNC, "ALLELULIA"

Don't forget to be listening to KCNC radio, 660, this evening for the premier of the musical "Allelulia". It will be aired at 8:10 p.m. Album copies of the musical will be given away following the presentation of the "Praise gathering for Believers."

CHECK IT OUT:

This is your chance to minister on campus while gaining valuable experience. If you are interested in getting into radio or just want to know more about KCNC, come to the meeting in the SUB tomorrow during Chapel. We have openings for disk jockeys, news reporters, and publicity people. Come to the meeting and check us out.

KCNC STAFF:

There will be a meeting for all KCNC people tomorrow morning, Friday, during Chapel in the SUB. Please be there.
