

STUDENT BULLETIN

January 17, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

There are few, if any, jobs in which ability alone is sufficient. Needed also are loyalty, sincerity, enthusiasm, and cooperation.

SNACK SHACK:

See you at the Snack Shack for a new treat!

ALUMNI MUSICALE:

There will be an interesting Alumni Musicale on Saturday, January 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel. Special musical numbers will feature Svante Smedman, pastor of a 1,200 member congregation in Sweden, who is an accomplished violinist and singer, a brass ensemble (the Calvary Brass), and a violin string ensemble will accompany a choir! Seniors interested in singing in the choir may rehearse at 3:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon in the Chapel. All NC students are invited.

KARISMA NEWS:

The Reaching Arms has been integrated into this year's annual. We therefore, would appreciate students contributing their literary work for publication in the annual. If any student wishes to contribute, the deadline for submitting articles will be February 1. Please submit them to Greg Benton, JoAnn Barros, or the mail box of Mr. Gustafson. The annual staff reserves the right to edit and/or choose material submitted.

COMMUNITY SERVICE MIG:

To all those who are involved or who would like to become involved in the tutoring program that is sponsored by the Community Service MIG, there will be a meeting in L-3 during chapel on Monday.

KCNC RADIO:

Remember, we will broadcast the Eagles basketball game from Concordia at 10:00 Friday night and from Multnomah at 8:00 Saturday night. Come after the service Friday and hear the game at the SUB.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES:

The Yakima Valley Council of Camp Fire Girls has several summer job opportunities open for interested students. The jobs include the following: Camp Director, Nurse, Cook, Assistant Cook, Swim Director, Horse Director, Unit Directors, Unit Counselors. If you are interested in more information regarding application and pay scale, contact the Dean of Student's Office.
