

STUDENT BULLETIN
January 29, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

And this is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

-- I John 5:14

STUDENT ACCOUNTS:

A carrying charge of 6% will be added to all accounts with an unpaid balance as of closing time, January 31.

INSTITUTE ON BASIC YOUTH CONFLICTS:

Northwest College will participate in the Spring Institute on Basic Youth Conflicts to be held in the Seattle Center, May 13-17. Students may register for the Institute through the Registrar's Office on campus. Deadline: March 29th. Applications are available now at the service counter of the Registrar's Office. Those planning to take the Institute for college credit should include it in their spring quarter registrations.

WYOMING STUDENTS:

Superintendent Beard will be on campus Wednesday, January 30 and desires to have dinner with the Wyoming students that evening.

LOST:

The lectern is missing from S-9. If anyone knows where it is, please return it immediately.

ALASKA STUDENTS - JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

Alaska students interested in summer work and who have a storehouse of information about Alaska (plus other qualifications) may wish to make application for summer employment through the Alaska Tour Company located at 6th and University in Seattle (across from Hilton Hotel), and in Park Place Building (Suite 312). Any interested Alaska student may go there and ask for application form and interview. They are presently seeking a student who speaks Japanese who wants to serve as a tour guide, but will take other applicants for possible openings later.

CULTURAL SERIES:

Plan to attend the informative cultural series event on Tuesday, February 5 at 8:00 p.m. in the Learning Center. A guest lecturer, Jack V. Crawford will be speaking on the subject of "Transactional Analysis." He will be referring to the No. 1 best seller: "I'm OK, You're OK," and will give time for questions concerning this subject.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY:

A Choir Director is needed at the Mt. Vernon Assembly of God. Contact the Dean of Students if interested.

INTRAMURAL ACTION:

During the second night's play, a record may have been set by 100 floor (odd) as they defeated the 500 floor (odd) by a score of 105 to 35. In other action, 500 (even) defeated the 200 floor by a score of 44 to 31 and 600 (even) defeated the off-campus by 84 to 56. In the final play, 300 floor defeated 100 (even) by a score of 63 to 34.

Tonight, Puget Sound College of the Bible will play Sheldon Jackson so there will be no intramurals. On Thursday, play will resume with following teams playing:

400 odd vs 300 (Comb) at 7:00 North end
400 even vs 100 even at 7:00 South end
600 odd vs 500 odd at 8:00 North end
Off Campus vs. 500 even at 8:00 South end
