

STUDENT BULLETIN

February 12, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

But now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.
--I Corinthians 13:13

BOOKSTORE NEWS:

Our "Gift Idea" table is loaded with good things to give to that special someone this week (20% off). Also available are cards for the casual friend. We have a new display of "all occasion" cards that are really neat! Some special buys on old cards -- do come and see. We know you will like them.

LOST:

A brown suede purse with black stitching. Anyone knowing its whereabouts, please contact Vicky, Room 217.

KCNC NEWS:

There will be an important meeting of all KCNC D.J.s and staff members this Thursday during chapel in the SUB. Other students who are interested in KCNC radio are invited to attend. A devotional will follow this short meeting.

Also, if you are interested in obtaining your third class radio operator's license and you have not contacted Ted Hochstatter, do it today. We are going to order the training books this week.

PEP BAND:

All Pep Band members are encouraged to be present for the big homecoming event on Saturday, February 19. The rehearsal will be one hour prior to the game, 6:30.

INSTITUTE ON BASIC YOUTH CONFLICTS:

Northwest College will participate in the Spring Institute in Basic Youth Conflicts to be held in the Seattle Center, May 13-17. Students may register for the Institute through the Registrar's Office on campus. Deadline, March 29th. Application forms are available now at the service counter of the Registrar's Office. Those planning to take the Institute for College credit should include it in their spring quarter registrations.

MARRIED STUDENT APARTMENTS:

There are apartments available in "The Firs", Married student housing on campus. For further information, Contact the Dean of Students Office.

BASKETBALL INTRAMURALS:

In games played Thursday, February 7, 1974, the 600 (odd) floor beat the 300 floor by a score of 45 to 27. The Offcampus team won their first game by defeating the 100 (even) team by a score of 97 to 38. In the 8:00 p.m. games, the 400 (odd) floor beat the 200 floor by a score of 36 to 37 and the 100 (odd) beat the 400 (even) by a score of 62 to 37.

In girls play Monday night, the 600 floor defeated the 500 floor by a score of 15 to 25. 200 floor and 300 floor did not play.
