

STUDENT BULLETIN

September 24, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

The future is that time when you'll wish you'd done what you aren't doing now.

STRING LESSONS:

Anyone interested in taking string lessons (violin, viola, cello, string bass), please sign up on Dr. Swaffield's door.

RAPID READING:

Reading efficiency is a must for today's student. Let AGP Rapid Reading help you to at least double your reading speed. It's a guarantee! The class is only being offered fall and winter quarters this year. Three two-hour sessions, September 26, October 8 and 15, 7-9 p.m. in E-1, will be taught by Mr. Randolph. Only $36.00, payable on or before the first session.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION REPRESENTATIVE:

John Cunningham, the Veterans Administration Representative at Northwest College, will be at the registration office, Bronson Hall, every Wednesday morning from 8:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. If you have any problems or questions concerning your VA benefits, please stop by. During the rest of the week he can be reached at Bellevue Community College, 641-2220.

MARRIED STUDENT HOUSING VACANCY:

An apartment in "The Firs", married student housing, will be available for occupancy on October 1, 1974. These apartments are on campus, furnished, with utilities for $140.00 per month. You may apply through the Dean of Students Office in the Administration Building.

ATTENTION, CO-WEDS:

A get-acquainted tea is planned for Saturday, September 28th from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. at Darlayne Brand's home: 12256 N. E. 73rd, Kirkland. We are anxious to meet all the married student wives at this time.

MARRIED STUDENTS ASSOCIATION:

Y'ALL COME -- "all" meanin' all married persons and any interest ladies -- t' "L'il" Randy's Married Person's Meetin' (sometimes otherwise known as Married Students Association). Git yurself over t' L-103 as soon after second period during chapel on Friday as yur dogs will carry ya. Free admission and entertainment. Refreshments pervided. No thieves, bootleggers, tramps, or otherwise good-for-nothing persons allowed!

BASIC YOUTH CONFLICTS:

If you are involved in Basic Youth Conflicts on Friday and Saturday and wish to take a sack lunch, sign up in the cafeteria.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES:

Newport Hills Baptist Church needs a church organist and choir director. If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Nutley at 747-2525

Korean Community Church in Seattle has need of couple Sunday school teachers. The Bible is taught in English to about 50 children, ages 5 to 17. If you are interested in or want further information, please contact Kyu Young Hwang, Korean student in Beatty 316.
