

STUDENT BULLETIN

November 16, 1976

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

You tell on yourself by the friends you seek; by the manner in which you speak; By the way you employ your leisure time; by the use you make of dollar and dime.

You tell what you are by the things you wear; by the spirit in which your burdens bear; By the kind of things at which you laugh, by the records you play on the phonograph

You tell what you are by the way you walk, by the things of which you delight to talk; By the manner in which you bear defeat; by so simple a thing as how you eat;

By the books you choose from the well-filled shelf; in these ways and more, you tell on yourself. So there's no particle of sense in an effort to keep up a false pretense.

What are you telling others about yourself and your Savior? Submitted by - a student
