

STUDENT BULLETIN
February 27, 1975

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Giving Advice has always been risky, as was pointed out by a schoolboy writing an essay about Socrates: "Socrates was a Greek philosopher who went around giving people a lot of advice. They poisoned him."

TESTING:

The Taylor-Johnson Temperament Analysis test and the Strong Vocational Interest test will be given on Friday (tomorrow), February 28 during 2nd period in L-103. Students who have not taken these two tests may do so at that time. Miss Brodin will be administering the tests. For the results of the tests you may make an appointment with either Miss Brodin or Mr. Kinney at the Receptionist's desk in the Administration Building.

"THIEF IN THE NIGHT":

The film, "Thief In The Night" will be shown this Saturday night, March 1, in Perks lounge at 9:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome!

DRAMA PRESENTATION:

Two short plays will be presented by an interpretative reader's group. The students who will participate are: Kay Shannon, Bonnie Batchelor, Anita Dickson, Sharyl Hanson, Cindy Hutchinson, Barb Hale, Jim Parker, and Larry Keller. Play Titles: "Diaries of Adam and Eve" by Mark Twain, and "The Waiting Room". This presentation will take place in the Learning Center Monday, March 3, at 7:00 p.m.

KARISMA STAFF POSITIONS OPEN:

Now that the yearbook is almost completed, it's time to appoint the officers for the 1975-76 staff. If you would be interested in either the editor, assistant editor, business manager or photo editor positions, please contact Carol Hearn, P-614, 822-9920. Scholarships are given to these positions on a quarterly basis.

CHILDREN'S ORTHOPEDIC HOSPITAL:

This Sunday, March 2, we will return to the hospital for our final time this quarter. Why not come and share in this great ministry of love. Meet in Perks lounge at 9:00 a.m.

EVANGELISM MIG:

Those interested in going to Sea-Tac Airport to do some witnessing please meet in the SUB Chapel Friday afternoon at 2:00 p.m.

COFFEE HOUSE MINISTRY:

Are you interested in ministering to young men and women? If you are, the Servicemen's MIG has a new opportunity for you. We are going to start ministering in a new coffee house at Fort Lewis this Friday. We will be leaving from Perks Hall at 6:15 p.m. Friday and at 5:30 p.m. Saturday. Please give these opportunities prayerful consideration.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

You are invited to visit the needy at Interlake Manor Convalescent Home. We will leave on Friday, February 28, at 2:30 p.m. from Perks Hall and will be back by 5:00 p.m.

KCNC SUPERSPORTS SPECTACULAR:

This weekend we will be broadcasting LIVE and PLAY BY PLAY the NLCAA Basketball Tournament from Portland, Oregon. Our coverage will begin at 8:55 with Jim Heugel--the Voice of the NC Eagles. We will also broadcast the Saturday night game. So, be listening Friday night at 8:55 for LIVE Eagles Basketball direct from Portland, Oregon. We would like to invite you off-campus students to join an on-campus friend to enjoy listening to this fine contest over KCNC-660 on the AM dial.

GROWTH GROUPS:

The Counseling Department of the College will be continuing a series of Growth Groups for the Spring Quarter. There are Growth Groups for singles and married couples. If you are interested in participating for 8 weeks (1½ hour sessions), please sign up at the Receptionist's desk in the Administration Building. If you desire more information, contact either Dean Clark or Dr. Rozell.

ENGAGED COUPLES SEMINAR:

The Counseling Department of the College is going to conduct an engaged couples seminar during the Spring Quarter. There will be four (1½ hour) sessions. The dates are April 14, 21, 28, May 5. The seminar will include opportunities for information, guidance and counseling with regard to vital aspects of marriage adjustment (values, expectancies, roles, communication, etc.). The seminar will be offered at no cost to engaged couples where one or both are students at the College. Students interested are requested to sign the list at the Receptionist's desk in the Administration Building.
