

STUDENT BULLETIN

October 14, 1975

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

And we know that all that happens to us is working for our good if we love God and are fitting into His plans.

--Romans 8:28 (The Living New Testament)

STUDENT ACCOUNTS:

A carrying charge of 6% of the unpaid balance on student accounts will be added after the business day on October 17. It Saves to Pay . . .

FLU IMMUNIZATIONS:

Flu immunizations are still available Monday, Wednesday, and Friday during Health Center hours through October.

CO-WEDS:

Don't forget our meeting on Thursday, October 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Faculty Dining Room in the Cafeteria. Let's all be there -- a good time to get acquainted.

MARRIED STUDENT ASSOCIATION:

Our first meeting will be held this Friday during Chapel in the Learning Center. Everybody come!

"NO PARKING":

The areas near and around the District Office are for their purposes. Please use your assigned parking place or area. REMINDER: The street by Beatty Hall is a posted "No Parking" area.

GOSPEL TEAMS:

Don't forget the auditions tonight at 7:00 p.m. in the Learning Center. Be prepared to present 2 numbers. Gospel team leaders should be there also, even if they're not singing in a group.

ATTENTION FRESHMEN!

There needs to be another election for Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer for your class. This will be held Wednesday, October 15, immediately following chapel in the chapel so please be there. NOTICE: Please bring your Strong Vocational Interest Blank with you when you come and turn in the counselor's copy to either Mr. Kinney or Miss Brodin.

PROSPECTIVE CHEERLEADERS:

Wednesday will be the last day we will be accepting applications for cheerleading. Remember to turn them in to Randy Billings (G-606). Also, remember Thursday night, October 16 at 7:00 p.m. is the big night for tryouts. Everybody come and show your school spirit!!!

BOOKSTORE NEWS:

Spaghetti - Popcorn - Chinese food - Penny candy - that's what's new!! Be the first on your floor to try them!! Really neat. Also, our first commentary sale of this school year starts Monday, October 20-24. Ask about details.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

Come visit the aged with us at Terrace View Convalescent Home. We leave Perks Hall Wednesday at 2:30 and return at 5:30.

ORIENTAL STUDENTS:

Any students speaking any of the oriental languages desiring to minister to people who can't speak English and have no friends, please contact Tom Nicodemus in G-409. If you're homesick, this would be great!

THE GREAT JUNIOR BUMPKIN BOOGIE!

Don't forget, juniors, this Saturday night, October 18 at 6:00 we will leave from Perks Hall for the Gold Creek Lodge in the woods. The cost is 50¢. More details in Thursday's bulletin.

ATTENTION, ALL STUDENTS!

As of now there is a ping-pong table with equipment set up in the SUB. The equipment will be available in the Library on a check-out basis the same as library equipment. If we take care of the equipment we will be able to have a lot of fun playing ping-pong.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL:

In Saturday's play the first game was won by the Off-Campus team 26-12 over the 100 floor team to remain undefeated. At 10:00 a.m. the 500 floor barely got by the 200-300 floor by a score of 13-6. In the final game of the morning, the 600 floor team defeated the 400 floor team by a score of 21-0. After three rounds of play the standings are as follows:
