THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

A friendly discussion is as stimulating as the sparks that fly when iron strikes iron.
--Proverbs 27:17 (Living Bible)

ELECTION DRAWS NEAR - NOVEMBER 4 IS THE DAY:

Any interested in doing some "doorbelling" in behalf of President Hurst -- 1½-2 hours -- contact Gail Johnson, Secretary to H. W. Crowder, or Jean Ely, Secretary to the President. The doorbelling will be in the evening the latter part of the week. A planning meeting will be held Wednesday evening, October 29 at 7:00 p.m. in the faculty dining room. If you cannot attend that meeting, but want to work, contact H. W. Crowder for an assignment. Thank you -- Let's win!

CHILDREN'S ORTHOPEDIC HOSPITAL:

The Children and Youth MIG will be going to the Children's Orthopedic Hospital again this Sunday. Meet at Perks at 9:00 a.m. We will be back by 12:00 noon. Come join us! It is very rewarding.

COMMUNITY SERVICE MIG:

Those wishing to become involved in rest home and convalescent home visitation we have two outreaches a week to Terrace View and Interlake Manor on Wednesday and Friday. We leave at 2:30 from Perks Hall and are back by 5:30. If you speak Japanese or Cantonese your help would be very much appreciated.

Also, those interested in tutoring underprivileged kids and just sharing yourself with them once a week see Kathi Stainer in P-509 or Tom Nicodemus in G-409.

FRESHMEN!

A house divided against itself cannot stand -- but if we stand united "the sky is the limit". So, let's get together and get involved! Sign up sheets for the Thanksgiving Banquet will be posted on bulletin boards across campus. Please sign up by Monday, November 3. Waiters and waitresses especially.

CO-WEDS:

Our next Co-Wed meeting will be Tuesday, November 4 at 7:30. Marilyn Johnson will be our speaker and will be teaching us how to macrame. The meeting will be at Evelyn Neumann's home, 5440 108th Avenue N. E., Kirkland (the duplex on campus next to the gym). See you there!

AWS - TONIGHT!

Special Feature: Darrel Sakamoto from "The Chopping Block" will be here to demonstrate his talents in hairstyling. Two of our girls will be models. It starts at 8:30 sharp in Perks Lounge. Come and see a 'pro' at work!

SOCCER TEAM:

The soccer team would like to express their thanks to all of the students who have been out to support them at their games. Right now the team has a record of 5 wins and 1 loss, the loss being a non-league game. The team has been doing good so far this year and it looks like they are going to have a real good season. Let's really get out and show them our support. Thanks!

INTERPRETATIVE READING FESTIVAL:

This big event will take place Tuesday, November 4 at 7:00 p.m. in the Learning Center. Come casual! There will be three presentations: (1) Continental Congressional Comedy - Cast: Jody Nordby, Mary Leel, Ruth Richardson, Rick Vickery. (2) Verse Choir - Director: Jackie Curry "The Battle Him of the Republic". (3) Dramatic-Musical Presentation - "The Singer", Cast: Jackie Curry, Mary Leel, Jody Nordby, Steve Pecota, Paul Petersen, Steve Nerheim.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OR INTERNSHIP MINISTRY:

A couple is needed for Christian Education with elementary children. Some opportunities for busing ministry. Some remuneration is available. The pastor will come to the College to interview, or call 852-5373 (Kent).

500 FLOOR ZOO:

Someone left a shirt when numbering at the Temple Church Shop. Contact Mr. Brevig at the shop if you want it back.

SUB CHAPEL:

Although some music instruction is given in the Chapel, we want to remind you that its primary use is for prayer.

HELP!

Anyone going to San Francisco during the winter break and would like a paying passenger, please contact Velme Redelfs, Box 1223.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE:

Wednesday, October 29 - Hugh McGowan
Thursday, October 30 - Bob Griffin
Friday, October 31 - Missions MIG, John Ohlin
