

STUDENT BULLETIN

April 29, 1976

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Forgive your enemies. Nothing will annoy them more.

--Wes Izzard

ATTENTION!

All students planning to attend the Billy Graham Crusade March 9-16 and needing transportation to the King Dome should sign up on the sheets placed in the dorms, chapel, and the SUB. If you can provide transportation, contact Dave Gerig (G-611), Stan Simpson (B-308) or Mike Langford (G-414).

COEDS:

Just a reminder about our next meeting. Mrs. Hobson will be teaching us the art of "bread dough". It will be in the cafeteria lounge May 4 at 7:30 p.m. Be sure and come for lots of fun and fellowship.

U OF W OUTREACH:

Thursday we will leave at 2:30 from Perks to go to the University to share Christ. For information, contact Paul Olsen (B-202) or Paul Remark (B-208).

CHILDREN'S ORTHOPEDIC HOSPITAL:

This Sunday is our last visit to the Children's Orthopedic Hospital. Come join us and be a special friend to the children there. We will meet in Perks lounge at 9:00 a.m. Sunday morning.

WE CAN SAY BYE, BYE:

After May 5 (not until) we can say: "Bye-Bye Bi-Centennial". In Chapel (May 5) there will be a Bi-Centennial emphasis featuring the King's Choralons and beginning with a Bi-Centennial Parade. All participants are asked to arrive in the library (to form parade) as near 9:00 a.m. as possible. Those attending Chapel that day are asked not to loiter in foyer but take seats immediately. It could avert a tragedy such as being trampled to death . . . (ha!) or having one's chapel seat confiscated, etc. etc. . . .

UNIQUE SUMMER MINISTRIES AVAILABLE:

This summer the Korean Community Church in Seattle will be in need of Sunday School teachers in three age levels: Junior High girls, Primarys, and Nursery. It is from 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoons. The church will pay for your gas and expenses to get there and back. If you are interested and don't have a car, inquire anyway. Maybe you can get a ride with someone.

ALSO: The Korean Church will be having a retreat July 3-5. They need counselors for the children and youth. You will be paid for this ministry. These people are great to work with. If interested in either of the above, contact Denese Kelp in P-313 or Lyle Esau in G-616.

STUDENT ELECTIONS:

Don't forget that we vote on Friday, April 30 on student officers for next year. It is important that you be there to do this. If you can't be there, please pick up an absentee ballot in the Administration office as soon as possible.
