FROM FAR AND NEAR

The Mission is still being perpetuated. As a symbol of this fact, we have pictured Northwest College Registrar Dr. Amos Millard's son, Dean; Doug Anderson, son of Rev. Charles Anderson, pastor at Seattle Calvary Temple; and Shoichi Ino, a student from Tokyo, Japan.

A NEED MET . . . AND A NEW NEED

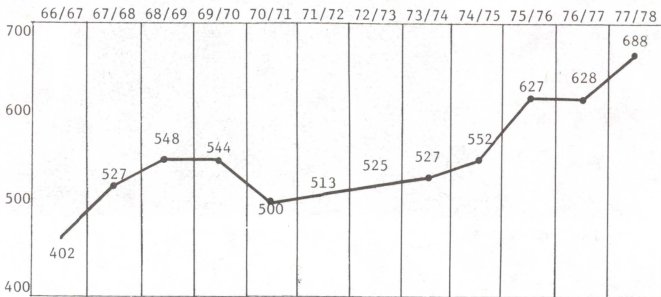

It's exciting, to say the least!

The enrollment for the fall quarter set another all time high of 688, up from 628 in the fall quarter last year, a 9.6% increase. Last year's winter quarter saw 640, an all time high up to that point. Normally, the winter quarter sees a drop from the fall quarter.

This is the eleventh consecutive quarter of record enrollment for any particular quarter—whether for Fall, Winter, or Spring.

All of this happening at the time when some schools are reporting only holding even or even dropping is especially gratifying.

The record of fall enrollments at Northwest for the past decade shows an interesting trend, as indicated on the graph.

A major economical slump paralleled the drop in the 1970-71 year. The recovery which followed was slow. However, the gains in the past few years have been significant, especially in 1975 when we grew 75 and now in 1977 when we have grown 60. They closely compare to 1967 when we grew 65. Last year we held even.

A whopping 73% of the total enrollment is enrolled in the Bible College Division, though among new freshmen, the Junior College enrollments hold up to 44% of the 305 Freshmen enrolled. Not only are new Freshman enrollments up (13%) from last year, but Sophomore enrollments are up by 11%; Junior enrollments are up by 27%. Senior enrollments are down slightly but will climb as third quarter Juniors achieve senior standing after the current quarter. The number of men students is up by 2% from last year.

Of more interest, however, than the statistics is the spiritual impact they represent. They represent young people—heading for the ministry! Young people who have heard the call of God, who desire to give themselves . . . to prepare . . . to go! The Church they represent is alive and well. It all speaks of great things ahead.

There is need for them. Our Dean of Admissions, Dr. Amos Millard, who handles placement says, "We need more! I wish we had two or three times the number of men who could assume roles as associate pastors. The opportunities are greater than the supply of graduates." So, we will enlist more . . . to the best of our ability.

At the same time, the campus is feeling the pressure of students now. At several points we will need to make provision. In the next few months, we will be talking about this in earnest.

Pray about the above and for the faculty and student body this year. We are off to a great start. God's blessing has rested on us in a sweet way. The official opening Convocation and Communion Chapel was a blessed sight. Our expectations are high! Praise God!

A Prophetic Symbol

Of the eight gates which give access into the ancient walled city of Jerusalem, this is the only one that is sealed. It was sealed by the Turkish ruler, Suleiman the Magnificent in the early 16th century. He sealed it for his own reasons, but many Bible scholars believe that there is an overriding reason why it is sealed—a reason about which the Prophet Ezekiel spoke when he saw a restored Temple. "Then he brought me back to the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. Then said the Lord unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it, therefore it shall be shut." Ezekiel 44:1-2. It will be one of the places that the College will view and note during its forthcoming Flying Seminars in 1978. The dates are March 9-10, and June 22-July 7. For more information, write Northwest College Flying Seminar, P.O. Box 579, Kirkland, WA 98033.

Our Photographer was able to catch Academic Dean, Dr. Frank Rice extending greetings to Dr. Robert Parlotz. Dr. Parlotz intends to mold the Counseling Program after the traditional Assembly of God value system, training ministers to have skills in counseling. Traditionally, the Counseling Program has been that of supporting the work of the ministry.

The Annual Northwest District Council WM Retreat was held on campus again this year. Alva Hoover, National Women's Ministries secretary, was the special speaker. The sessions averaged 350 people and 357 were served at the Banquet. Most of the ladies stay in the Perks Dorm and have the opportunity to enjoy a few days of campus life.

WORK ON CAMPUS

All three showers in Beatty were completely redone this summer. Above, they are hauling away the debris. Below, an inside view of one of the showers being replaced.

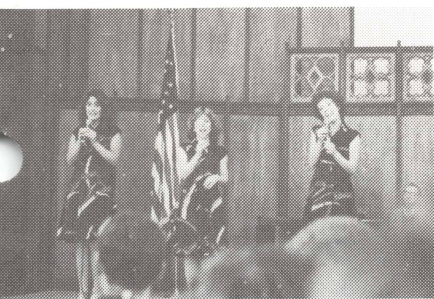

Old Chinese Proverb?

It is wiser to build sidewalk where students trod than to try to grow grass; or, If you can't beat them, join them!

The Northwest College Bookstore was expanded and remodeled over the summer. Pictured above are Esther Pecota, Bookstore manager, and her assistant, Jackie Randolph. They are standing in front of the new textbook carrels, which make it much easier for students to secure their particular texts. The atmosphere has changed considerably with a new openness and lends itself to those who would like to spend time browsing among the books.

The first day of chapel was a joyous and exciting time for both old and new students.

Two Faculty Presented To The Student Body

Rev. Dwaine Braddy, instructor in the Pastoral Ministries program.

Dr. Robert Parlotz, instructor in the Counseling and Biblical fields.

Annual Bonfire

Each Fall, one of the first student body activities is the annual bonfire. Students gather and join their hearts in song and worship. It becomes a unique time for the young people to get to know one another. This year's Student Body President Don Ross gave a challenging talk to the students.

Dan French, who is in charge of the Northwest College Radio Station, looks over the new and modern equipment in the control room of the new Music Center.

1977-78 Who's Who Students Selected

1977-78 Edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will carry the names of twelve students from Northwest College who have been selected as being among the countries' most outstanding campus leaders. Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extra curricular activities, and future potential.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than one thousand institutions of higher learning in all fifty states, British Columbia, and several foreign countries. Students named this year from Northwest College are: Larry Scott Anderson, Bryan L. Ashpole, Jacklyn Carol Curry, Susan M. Fleig, Mary C. Kidwell, Duane Claude Kirkwood, Kenneth Michael Koehl, Cheryl Ann Mayfield, Thomas Dean Nicodemus, David L. Ritter, Don E. Ross, and Duane Carl Simpson.
